NIRAV MODI LOSES BID TO APPEAL AGAINST EXTRADITION TO INDIA

The London High Court refused to give the fugitive businessman permission to appeal in the UK Supreme Court against extradition. This signals end of the road for Nirav Modi as it limits his legal options to escape extradition. He can now approach the European Court of Human Rights to block his extradition claiming that he will not receive a fair trial in India and that he will be detained in conditions that breach Article 3 of the European Convention on Human Rights, to which the UK is a signatory | P12

Govt for system change to fill up judicial vacancy

Rijiju rapped for criticising bail hearings in SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

UNION law minister Kiren Rijiju on Thursday kept up his attack on the collegium system, blaming it for high judicial vacancies, saying the issue will keep cropping up until the procedure of appointment of judges is changed.

He also took a critical view of the Supreme Court taking up all bail applications and "frivolous PILs", claiming it will add to its burden, which drew sharp comments from legal eagles.

On the collegium system, he said in the Rajya Sabha, "The government has no right to find new names for appointment of judges except the names that have been recommended by the collegium.... I have requested Supreme Court and high court judges to ensure that names of quality judges are sent, and that they include names of women and those belonging to various castes."

The minister recalled that in 2015, Parliament passed the National Judicial Appointments Commission (NJAC) Act to reform the system to appoint judges. But the SC struck it down some months later.

Till September 9, the government had appointed 165 HC judges, the highest in a calendar year so far. "Government has recently referred back 20 names to Supreme Court Collegium recommended for appointment as High Court judges....Against 331 vacancies, at present, 147 proposals received from High Courts are at various stages of processing between the Government and the Supreme Court Collegium," he said.

Sibal poser

"Rijiju alleged said: Supreme Court must not take up bail pleas ....Does he even know the meaning of liberty?" senior advocate Kapil Sibal tweeted

Reacting to Rijiju's comment on bail applications, Congress MP Manish Tewari said, "Obviously Law Minister Kiren Rijiju had other pressing preoccupations in Law School other than Law. He perhaps has never read Justice Krishna Iyer's seminal treatise - bail not jail is the rule."

"Forget NJAC, Govt wants to micromanage judiciary: cut vacations, no priority to bail, et al. What next?" senior advocate Salman Khurshid wondered.

Indian's breakthrough paves way for Sanskrit-learned computers

BALA CHAUHAN @ Bengaluru

RISHI Atul Rajpopat (27), PhD scholar from St John's College, Cambridge, just solved a 2,500-year-old grammar problem in the ancient Sanskrit texts written by 5th-century BC scholar and philologist Panini, that had perplexed traditional and modern researchers all these centuries. A major implication of his breakthrough is that now the algorithm that runs Panini's grammar can potentially teach this grammar to computers.

Mumbai-born Rajpopat's PhD thesis, published on Wednesday in the journal Apollo — University of Cambridge Repository and titled 'In Panini We Trust: Discovering the Algorithm for Rule Conflict Resolution in the Ashtadhyadyi', has decoded a two-and-a-half-millennia-old algorithm which for the first time has made it possible to accurately use Panini's 'language machine' in his famous Ashtadhyayi.

Rishi Atul Rajpopat | UNIV OF CAMBRIDGE

Speaking exclusively to The New Indian Express, Rajpopat said Panini's Ashtadhyayi has around 4,000 rules (sutras) that describe the structure of Sanskrit. "He has given one metarule (a rule that governs the application of other rules) — '1.4.2 vipratisedhe param karyam' — to help us decide which rule should be applied in the event of 'rule conflict'. But the problem in the last 2,500 years has been that scholars misinterpreted this metarule and added more metarules with grammatically incorrect results," he explained.

Often, two or more of Panini's rules are simultaneously applicable at the same step, leaving scholars to agonise over which one to choose.

File FIRs in accidents due to bad roads: HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court on Thursday directed the police department to not hesitate or avoid registration of First Information Report (FIR) when any citizen approaches the jurisdictional police station with a complaint of serious injury or death caused due to potholes and bad condition of roads.

"We are permitting to implead the Home Department as a respondent in the backdrop of certain news reports that even though the citizens approach the police authorities for registering FIRs on account of serious injury or death caused due to bad condition of roads and potholes, the police authorities in most cases are neither responding to the citizens nor are filing FIRs", said a division bench of Chief Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice Ashok S Kinagi in an order passed after hearing a PIL filed by Vijayan Menon and three others from Koramangala, in 2015.

Referring to its earlier order, dated February 6, 2020, in which it stated that the citizens are entitled to seek compensation when there is loss of life of injury caused due to the poor condition of roads, the high court directed the BBMP to submit a response with data on whether such representations seeking compensation were received, the number of such representations or any compensation awarded on receipt of such representations.

France scale Morocco wall, to face Argentina in final

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

France's Kylian Mbappe consoles Morocco's Achraf Hakimi | AP

THIS is what France do. They give out the illusion that they are struggling but still manage to win games. Against Morocco they were strictly second best for the majority of the game but still managed to eke out a 2-0 win to advance to a fourth World Cup final since 1998 (2-1 record in finals).

Les Bleus were one of the favourites and they have lived up to that billing. If 2018 was all about SufferBall — focusing on defensive solidity and structure above expansive football — this WC has been about winning all the big moments and adapting to life without Paul Pogba and N'Golo Kante. Coach Didier Deschamps had to repurpose Antoine Griezmann who has come out trumps as a playmaker. To be fair, if awards were given out on the basis of actual contribution and not just goals, Griezmann would be firmly in the running for Golden Ball. In their 2-0 win over Morocco, France broke two things. Morocco's defence as well as hearts of millions.

When fans celebrated France's win, they joined in celebrating Morocco's dream run too. Saturday will give them an opportunity to take a crack at destiny when they play Croatia for a third place. For France, the goal is higher — beat Lionel Messi-possessed Argentina to become the first nation since Brazil to retain the Cup. Kylian Mbappe vs Messi will be more than just a clash. It will be nervy and emotional. P15

BBMP seeks ₹600 cr to clear dues

Civic agency owes ₹2,500 crore to contractors, hasn't paid any bill since 2020

MOHAMMED YACOOB @Bengaluru

WITH dues to be cleared by the BBMP to contractors running into Rs 2,500 crore, the civic body has sent a proposal to the state government seeking a loan of Rs 600 crore to settle some of the bills. It is said the Palike has not cleared any bills to contractors since 2020.

Confirming this to The New Indian Express, Special Commissioner for BBMP Finance Department, Jayaram Raipura said, "A proposal seeking a loan of Rs 600 crore was sent to the government 15 days ago. The Palike has asked the government to release the loan under the Amrita Nagaroththana Yojana," said Raipura.

According to the special commissioner, the bills will be settled on a 'first-come-first-serve' basis. "The contractors who have completed projects and submitted the bills to the finance department will get part by part payment through the Chief Account Officer's office," said an official. The BBMP official said about 1,300 contractors who have implemented projects like installation of street lights, building of drains, asphalting roads and other infrastructure work have been adversely affected by the Covid pandemic. Some of them, who had taken loans and invested in the BBMP projects, are forced to pay the interest amount for more months than expected.

The BBMP official said that execution of work is pending in many departments including civil, education, waste management, infrastructure and planning. "Even though the plan has been drawn up and approved, work is pending as contractors are reluctant to come forward to complete the work," said an official.

Karnataka Contractors Association president D Kempanna slammed both BBMP and the state government for the delay in settling the bills. "The contractors are in deep debt. The government has to come forward and clear at least Rs 2,000 crore in one go to bail out the distressed contractors," he said.

KARANTH LAYOUT

4,500 houses will be regularised on payment of betterment fee

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

BANGALORE Development Authority (BDA) has decided to regularise 4,500 houses built in the layout after August 2018, if the owners come forward to pay betterment charges, BDA Chairman and MLA S R Vishwanath announced. He said that farmers who handed over their lands for formation of Dr Shivarama Karanth Layout will be the first to be awarded developed sites in February 2023.

The MLA performed the groundbreaking ceremony for the launch of construction works in the layout at Kalamathanahalli on Thursday, nearly 14 years after it was first proposed. "A total of 22,000 sites will be created on 3,546 acres of land, spread across 17 villages," Vishwanath said.

The houses the BDA plans to regularise will be in addition to the nearly 5,000 houses which have already been regularised in the layout, based on recommendations of the Supreme Court appointed Justice A V Chandrashekhar Committee. Farmers who opted for an amicable settlement can get developed plots in the 60:40 ratio (60% of undeveloped land will get 40% of developed layout) in February, or cash. "No injustice will be done to farmers," he stressed. The layout has been divided into nine packages, and contracts awarded after repeated rounds of tendering.

23 BDA staff jailed

The MLA later told advocates that 23 BDA staffers, including officers, were sent to jail for committing illegalities, apart from seizure of many acres of BDA land worth hundreds of crores of rupees.

Two women lawyers were handed preliminary ownership documents inside the city civil court on Thursday, to mark the launch of sale of BDA flats at Kommaghatta to advocates. A 12% discount on flats bought at Kanminike and Kommaghatta, was announced for advocates. The discount is applicable only if at least 100 flats are purchased within the next three months, a release said.

DigiYatra not functional at KIA, complain flyers

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

THE much hyped DigiYatra (face recognition technology) at Kempegowda International Airport (KIA) is increasingly receiving a lot of flak from flyers, who allege that it is non-functional. Social media has been abuzz for quite some time, with disappointment spelt out by passengers at Bengaluru who attempted to use the technology for a quick and seamless entry to board their flights.

On December 1, DigiYatra facilities were formally launched at the Bengaluru, Varanasi and New Delhi airports by Civil Aviation Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia at Indira Gandhi International Airport.

However, Bengaluru had been heavily publicising it for quite some time, with the beta version of DigiYatra app launched on August 15, 2022, to mark the 75th Independence Day. KIA had been a pioneer, with trials held since January 2017.

Vistara Airlines and Air Asia were integrated with this contactless system, which enables speedier processing of passengers at airports based on usage of face biometrics.

Raghuveer Sakuru, Managing Director and co-founder of Bengaluru IT firm, PlatiFi, told The New Indian Express, "I love technology and very excitedly downloaded the DigiYatra app on my mobile, and uploaded my Aadhaar and Covid-negative certificate prior to my travel by Air Asia to Hyderabad on December 13. On reaching the airport, I went to the section with DigiYatra kiosks and nothing happened! A security staffer nearby told me that they do not work, and I had to manually hand over my boarding pass and identification documents."

Out of order DigiYatra kiosks at Kempegowda International Airport

His tweet conveying the same to airport operator Bangalore International Airport Limited (BIAL), got a response regretting the inconvenience caused and assuring corrective measures.

This is not an isolated instance and The New Indian Express came across multiple tweets questioning its existence at KIA.

Arnav Khanna, another flyer and a budding lawyer, tweeted to Scindia: "What's the point of coming up with things when it is not being implemented at the airports. Not a single kiosk of DigiYatra is working at Bengaluru airport, and the same waiting time and line continues."

When complaints were brought to the notice of BIAL recently by The New Indian Express, a source claimed that the DigiYatra system was functioning properly.

B'luru airport just got more disabled-friendly

ENS @Bengaluru

IN a bid to assist persons with reduced mobility (PRM) and hidden disabilities, the Kempegowda International Airport (KIA) has put in place special services inside Terminal One. Among them are a reserved drop-off spot outside the terminal on Lane 1, dedicated entry Gate 5 at Departures and priority check-in if required. Braille menus have been launched at eateries too.

According to a release on Thursday, the airport has now become a Sunflower airport as the globally recognised Hidden Disabilities Sunflower initiative has been introduced here. Hidden disabilities may not be obvious, and could include a person with anxiety, diabetes or similar conditions, the release explained. In addition, they could also request a spot in the designated security check lane.

Under the Sunflower programme, any individual who may need additional support from the airport staff may opt to pick up a lanyard (strap) or a badge or a wrist band from the service kiosks in the airport. With these, such persons can identify themselves to airport staff to approach them and help them, it added. "For the ease of visually-impaired travellers, the airport has also introduced Braille menus at all food establishments," the release said.

In addition, some employees have been given sign language training to assist flyers with hearing and speech disabilities. The staff will also offer additional support, like extending their time and assisting in guiding them through airport procedures. Complimentary buggy services are available at the kerbside and at Arrivals Exit Gate A5 (next to the luggage reclaim area) for PRM.

Girinath visits homes, verifies voter lists

The verification process is going on in all the assembly constituencies, and if there are any shortcomings in the work done by BLOs, they have been instructed to rectify it

Tushar Girinath, BBMP Chief Commissioner

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

FOLLOWING directions from the Election Commission of India, house-to-house verification of the voter list -- for addition, deletion and modification – is being carried out by the BBMP with Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath himself visiting seven houses at Mahalakshmi Layout and verifying the lists

Speaking to reporters after the inspection, Girinath said, "The verification process is going on in all the assembly constituencies, and if there are any shortcomings in the work done by Booth-Level Officers (BLOs), they have been instructed to rectify it," he added.

Against the backdrop of many objections regarding the cancellation of votes in the revision of the voter list, house-to-house visits are being carried out and the ECI itself will provide a list of forms to be verified, the chief commissioner said.

According to the Palike, Form-8 can be used for altering the electoral roll, moving from one constituency to another and moving from one place or location to another. Form-6 is used for new entrants. Instructions have been given to the BLOs to conduct adequate checks to avoid mistakes.

BBMP chief inspects K-100 project, orders removal of waste from site

BENGALURU: Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath, who inspected the 'K-100 waterway project', found that the shops along its route were encroaching by dumping scrap on site. He directed officials to get the debris removed immediately. As part of this project, a canal will be developed from NR Road (KR Market) to Bellandur Lake in the Koramangala valley. The Palike aims at diverting waste water and carry out beautification of the rain water channel by making the purified water flow into the canal forever. As the completion date for the project is near, the chief commissioner carried out the inspection.

16th December : Pisces is the Sign of the Fish, but these wonderful creatures also turn up elsewhere in astrology. The tradition is a very ancient one which commemorates the story that the goddess Venus, whose special day is Friday, was rescued from a terrible monster when she was turned into a fish and escaped!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
It is said that although you were born a fighter, you have the heart of a peacemaker. In other words, although you naturally take command, you long for co-operation. Today is a good time to find it. It all looks very complicated though, so there really aren't any easy answers.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
It's an excellent moment to get on with work that has been delayed for too long. If you face a mountain of chores, don't despair. Start at the beginning and you'll be surprised at just how little there really is to do. It's all a matter of arranging everything in a logical order.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Mercury's challenge to your sign should be teaching you the value of what great mystics call non-attachment. In this case it is your attitudes and opinions which should be abandoned, even if you've held them since time immemorial. A little more belief in the future would come in handy!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Seldom have you needed so much guidance and support. You probably won't let on, but inside it feels as if much of what you have striven for is unravelling. It isn't, of course, but your feelings still cry out for reassurance. You should get it in the next few days.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
There are increasingly strong signals that you're about to receive a series of welcome invitations. Rather than sitting next to the phone, waiting for it to ring, though, how about getting the ball rolling yourself? You never know - you might get the response you're hoping for!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
A superficial reading of your chart reveals this as an extravagant moment. On deeper examination what is revealed is that you are now well on the way to a remarkable breakthrough which could guarantee your security for a very long time to come indeed.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
One particularly encouraging aspect is setting you up for an emotional whirlwind. The main proviso is that you initiate new enterprises and adventures yourself, taking advantage of Jupiter's confidence-building influences. Also, keep a very close eye on cash opportunities.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You will probably be completely unaware of what is being planned at home or within your family. At the very least you can afford to be the recipient of welcome generosity. What makes more sense to you, though, is the old adage that it is nobler to give than to receive.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You'll soon be able to strike out on your own, mainly because you have your own ideas. You'll no longer have to pay lip-service to employers, or anyone in authority for that matter. The fact is that you probably know more than they do, so it's up to them to make the compromises.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You should let it be known that any new financial arrangement must take your feelings into account. This makes for a complex situation in which debts of honour are as important as monetary ones. Plus, of course, there's the little question of a friend, who owes you a favour, to be considered!

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
You hold a full set of emotional trump cards at the moment. Whether you choose to play them today or save them until next week is another matter, but in general it's a case of the sooner the better. In fact, what's good for you might just be good for others, too.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Secret feelings still seem to dominate your life, and deciding which way to jump may be putting quite a strain on your emotional reserves. Don't worry if you now have to sort out a major financial proposal - it should be fairly straightforward.

Sexual abuse: Girl students beat up principal with sticks

Complainants say accused lured another teacher and was having an illicit affair; Video goes viral on social media

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

THE headmaster of a school was beaten up with sticks by some girl students after he allegedly misbehaved and sexually abused minor students at a village in Mandya. The accused has been identified as Chinmayananda, who is also in charge of a girls hostel at Katteri village in Srirangapatna taluk of Mandya. According to the girl students, the accusations against Chinmayananda came to light when one of their hostel inmates opened up and shared her harrowing experience with the accused. Enraged by this, the hostel inmates picked up sticks, barged into the principal's room and beat him up. A video of the incident has gone viral on social media. With the help of the warden, the girl students informed the local police who visited the spot and took the accused into custody.

The complainants alleged that Chinmayananda had lured another teacher and was having an illicit relationship with her. He had even recorded objectionable videos of him with her which he used to show to the students, they said. BBMP starts anaemia screening in govt schools

NAMRATA SINDWANI @Bengaluru

BBMP is screening students of government and aided schools across the city to identify and study the prevalence of anaemia in children. It has been conducting anaemia screening workshops in schools from the first week of December.

BBMP Special Commissioner (Health) Dr KV Thrilok Chandra told TNIE that doctors from public health centres have been checking the haemoglobin levels and anaemia in children.

With the findings from the screening tests, the Palike plans to understand the root causes of anaemia in children and take necessary steps towards tackling it. A sample size has been created for each zone and the data collected from all the zones will be cumulated in a report.

Dr Rajath Athreya, head of department (paediatrics), Sakra World Hospital, explained, "Poor nutrients in diet is a major reason for anaemia, especially in the lower income group. Even a baby can end up becoming anaemic after transitioning from breast milk if nutrient rich food is not fed. A girl in the initial few years of their period cycles are also often found to be anaemic due to excessive loss of blood."

PARENTS FIGHT IT OUT AT KIDS' SCHOOL, ONE LANDS IN HOSP

PRAVEEN KUMAR @ Bengaluru

IN a bizarre incident, parents of two UKG students fought outside the school in Vidyaranyapura area. One of the students is said to have often hit his classmate, who would go home and complain to his mother.

When the child's mother reported the incident to the class teacher, the mother of the other boy, who did not like the incident being escalated, brought her kin along and attacked the boy's father when he had come to drop his son to school. The victim, M Taranath, a software developer, filed the complaint against the woman and her associates. He also requested police to educate the naughty boy so that he does not bully his son again.

Taranath is a resident of Jalahalli, and his five-year-old son is in UKG in a reputed private school in Jalahalli. The complaint was registered on Tuesday. Taranath told TNIE that he had no intention of pursuing the case. "I got admitted to hospital after I was beaten and punched in my stomach in the parking area of the school. The hospital registered a medico-legal case and reported the matter to the police, who recorded my statements in hospital and registered a complaint," he said.

Taranath's son was said to have been beaten by his classmate for three to four months. On December 9, he spoke to the boy and told him not to hit his son. The classmate's mother, on seeing this, left shouting. Three days later, she allegedly came with two others and attacked Taranath. "The school's PE teacher rescued me. Even now I am not interested in pursuing the matter. I want the boy's parents to come and talk to me," Taranath added. "A parent assaulting another parent over their kids fighting in school, is something very bizarre. An FIR was filed," said an officer. Vidyaranyapura police registered a case under IPC section 324.

The victim is Nidin P, a native of Kozhikode district in Kerala. He was found with his throat slit inside the toilet of his hostel room. He was a Computer Science student at AMC College of Engineering.

College principal Dr Girisha C said, "On questioning his roommate, we found that he had some family problems. Apart from this, we do not know much about him as he was a first-year student who had joined just two weeks back." Nidin's father works in Dubai while his mother and grandmother reside in Kerala. "On Wednesday afternoon, the roommate, Gourav Ganapathi, returned from class and found the doors bolted from inside. As there was no response, the roommate informed the hostel warden. Bommai rules out differences with Yediyurappa, calls their relation like that of father & son

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

WITH rumours and media reports doing the rounds that all is not well between Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and his predecessor BS Yediyurappa, both leaders, on record, clarified that all's well. Yediyurappa, who participated in the virtual inauguration of district party offices in Koppal after the party offered him an invitation at the very last minute, denied speculations that the party was ignoring him.

Asked if there were forces in the party, who are trying to silo him, he said that he has his own strength, and that he was using it to strengthen the party.

Bommai ruled out any kind of differences of opinion with his mentor and senior BJP leader Yediyurappa, and said that their relationship is like that of a father and son. Those who are expecting that some differences might creep in later, will be disappointed, he said.

"It is a lie that the invitation was not given to Yediyurappa for any function because of which he is upset with the state leaders." Some saffron party leaders claimed that by emphasising on his strength, he was ostensibly sending out a message to his detractors, the most notable being BL Santosh, national general secretary (organisation) of the BJP.

Sources in the BJP said after Yediyurappa was upset, party leaders like general secretary Arun Singh called him from New Delhi and asked him to participate in the party programme.

BSY supreme leader of state BJP: Bommai

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Koppal

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai said on Thursday that former CM B S Yediyurappa is the supreme leader of the BJP in the state and assembly elections will be fought with his blessings.

Bommai was speaking at Koppal before participating in the party meeting.

Ruling out any difference of opinion with Yediyurappa, Bommai said that his relationship with him is like that of a father and son. "I have no difference of opinion with Yediyurappa. Those expecting that to happen will be disappointed. It is a big lie that Yediyurappa is not being invited to any BJP function and because this, he is upset with other leaders of the party in the state," Bommai said.

Reacting to Congress MLA Priyank Kharge's statement that BJP is a house with three doors, Bommai said the Congress house has no doors or windows, everything is open. "The Congress is trying to create confusion among the people that I have difference of opinion with Yediyurappa. This is not true. People of the state will give a proper reply to the Congress party in the coming elections," he said.

Cong will get 136 seats, BJP 66, claims DKS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KPCC president DK Shivakumar claimed that the political scenario in Karnataka cannot be compared with Gujarat, and predicted 136 seats for the Congress and 66 for the ruling BJP in the 2023 assembly polls. He ruled out a fractured mandate, or the possibility of Operation Lotus happening again.

"Our party's internal survey has given these numbers. Voters seen BJP's misrule and are now expecting clean government from the Congress," he asserted, at an interaction with reporters at Press Club of Bengaluru on Thursday.

He alleged that CM Basavaraj Bommai had "massacred democracy" by not holding elections to Zilla Panchayats and Taluk Panchayats. He demanded the CM's resignation as the Karnataka HC has slapped a penalty of Rs 5 lakh on the government for its failure.

On the BJP bringing in Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah extensively for campaigning, Shivakumar ridiculed that the party lacked leadership in the state, so it was banking on central leaders. "We have an able leader in AICC president Mallikarjuna Kharge who knows every nook and corner of the state. We will take a call on which leader will campaign in a specific region," he said.

He claimed that leaders from rival parties are enthusiastic about joining the Congress ahead of elections. "Revenue Minister R Ashoka may have claimed that there are 10 Congress MLAs who wish to join BJP, but we too have our own list of their party legislators," he said.

Shivakumar alleged that the state DGP had tweeted that the cooker blast was an act of terrorism, possibly to divert people's attention from the voter data theft issue. He listed out issues like the '40 per cent commission' which contractors had raised, resignations of KS Eshwarappa and Ramesh Jarkiholi, and maladministration of the Covid-19 pandemic. On being compared with ex-CM SM Krishna as a Vokkaliga leader recently, he quipped, "I have been made party president by the high command with some calculations."

Rahul's Bharat Jodo act of repentance for deeds of his ancestors, says Nadda

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Koppal

CONGRESS leader Rahul Gandhi has taken up the Bharat Jodo Yatra as an act of repentance, because his ancestors and the Congress had divided India. The Congress supports anti-national elements but under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the country is safer than before, BJP National President J P Nadda said here on Thursday. Nadda was speaking after inaugurating the BJP district party office in Koppal.

"It was PM Modi who took a decision to remove Article 370 in Jammu and Kashmir. Those who talk about dividing India are with Rahul Gandhi. In JNU, they talk about breaking the country... They hail Afzal Guru and now they have joined the Congress rally. Congress is with people ho are trying to divide the country," he said.

Nadda said that 7 lakh families in Karnataka have benefitted from the Vidhyanidhi scheme. Karnataka is also the first state to implement the National Education Policy. The Bommai government has provided several welfare schemes to the middle class, and all projects that were planned by former chief minister BS Yediyurappa are being taken up by Bommai. The BJP is always with the youth, Dalits and farmers," he added.

"We will establish BJP offices in all districts across the country. For BJP, the party is like family but for Congress, family itself is the party," he said.

ASHOKA: 16-MEMBER TEAM PICKED 10 LEADERS TO JOIN BJP

Kolar: Revenue Minister R Ashoka indicated that 10 legislators are likely to join BJP, and clarified that none of the 16 leaders, who have joined the party from Congress and JDS, will return. Speaking to media persons in Kolar, he said they have set up a team of 10 members from other side who are likely to join the saffron camp. When the previous ruling coalition could not stop the 16 members from joining BJP, then there should not be any question of them returning, he asserted. There is no infighting in BJP, he said, adding that former chief minister BS Yediyurappa is tall leader, under whose leadership, the BJP will be facing the next Assembly elections. Confirming the same, Horticulture and Kolar district in-charge Minister Munirathna said 20 members are ready to join BJP, and from among them, the team has selected 10. They are old friends, and soon they will be joining the BJP which will help the party get a majority, he said. | V VELAYUDHAM

BSY, Bommai predict Cong rout in '23

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hubballi

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai and his predecessor BS Yediyurappa predicted that Congress would be routed in Karnataka in the 2023 Assembly elections, and added that the dream of Congress leaders to become chief minister, that has led to internal wrangling, will be shattered.

Taking part in the virtual inauguration of 10 district party offices from Koppal on Thursday, Yediyurppa said, "Congress is somehow breathing in the state, but will be decimated once people reelect the BJP government next year, which will put the party in an existential crisis." Stating that the Congress leaders are wandering as people have kept them out of power, he said that AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge is struggling to keep Siddaramaiah and Shivakumar factions together.

Despite exuding confidence that the saffron party will win 140 seats, Yediyurappa cautioned party workers that they should not become complacent, and told them to apprise the voters about the misdeeds of the Congress when they were in power, and drum the welfare programmes of the double-engine government to people.

Alleging that Congress has deceived people for 70 years with its deceptive and false promises, Bommai lashed out at CLP leader Siddaramaiah for questioning the government's intent to implement internal reservation as recommended by the Sadashiva Commission.

YELLAPUR BJP LEADER HOPS TO CONGRESS

Bengaluru: Former BJP MLA from Yellapur VS Patil and his supporters on Thursday joined the Congress in the presence of state Congress president DK Shivakumar, former chief minister Siddaramaiah and former minister RV Deshpande. Shivakumar told reporters that Patil had received the best MLA award when APJ Abdul Kalam was President. He had contested the 2013 and 2018 elections as a BJP candidate, and lost the last elections with a narrow margin of 1,480 votes, he said. Patil was BJP state executive committee member and chairman of Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC). After some Congress leaders joined BJP, ruling party leaders in those assembly segments are joining the Congress, Shivakumar said. Applications from many leaders wanting to join the party are pending, he said. Shivakumar said he and Siddaramaiah will together visit 20 districts that were not covered during the Bharat Jodo Yatra, after which they will visit all 224 assembly segments separately.

The victim, Isaac, 43, a construction worker, has lodged a complaint with the Bantwal Rural police. He is a resident of B-Mooda village. He stated that while he was travelling by bus to his place of work in Moodbidri on Wednesday morning, an unidentified person approached him and abused him for allegedly misbehaving with the girls in the bus.

Vishwanath on Thursday alleged prominent BJP youth leader of offering him money at his apartment in the presence of other top BJP leaders and a veteran journalist.

"I have documented all this in my book Bombay Days which has details of the developments that ended up in the defection of 17 MLAs, and BS Yediyurappa becoming chief minister," he said.

He said Chamarajanagar MP V Srinivas Prasad prevailed on him to resign to pave way for the juniors to topple the coalition government. Despite Shah fiat, MES to hold parallel session

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

MAHARASHTRA Ekikaran Samiti (MES) has decided to go ahead with Mahamelava despite Union Home Minister Amit Shah asking chief ministers of Karnataka and Maharashtra to wait for the Supreme Court verdict on border dispute.

A pro-Maharashtra session in Belagavi, which will run simultaneously with the winter session of the Assembly, will demand the merger of several areas of Karnataka with Maharashtra.

The objective of the parallel session of the MES, to be held on the inaugural day of the winter session, is to pass a resolution demanding the merger of several areas of Karnataka on the border including Belagavi, Nipani, Khanapur, Bidar and Bhalki with Maharashtra.

"We are firm on holding the Mahamelava on December 19 in Belagavi. Why should not we hold the parallel session when Karnataka is conducting a 10-day winter session in Belagavi," said a top MES leader and former MLA Manohar Kinekar.

If holding the parallel session amounts to contempt of court, so will be the winter session, he said, adding that the points made Shah during the meeting in New Delhi did not help clarity on the border dispute.

"We have already invited all the top leaders of Maharashtra for the Mahamelava. If the status quo has to be maintained by both sides as told by Shah, both the states should have adhered to it from 2004 when the Supreme Court was moved in connection with the border dispute," said Kinekar.

A noted Kannada activist Ashok Chandargi said that as per the terms accepted by both sides, none of the Maharashtra leaders should attend the anti-Karnataka events to be organised on the border including the parallel session by MES on December 19.

However, the state government is yet to give permission to the MES to hold the parallel session, which is scheduled to be held at Vaccine Depot, Tilakwadi. The MES leaders are confident that they will hold the session regardless of the attendance of Maharashtra top leaders.

Time to bid adieu to KCR govt: Nadda

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Karimnagar/ Hyderabad

BJP national president JP Nadda launched a scathing attack against the State government by saying that the time to bid farewell to the government of Chief Minister K Chandrasekhar Rao had arrived. He was speaking at a public meeting to mark the end of the fifth phase of the party State unit president Bandi Sanjay Kumar's Praja Sangrama Yatra at the SRR College Grounds here on Thursday.

Addressing the gathering of party workers and supporters, he alleged that KCR's entire family was involved in rampant corruption and cheating the residents of the State. When Telangana was formed, the State had a budget surplus but owing to KCR's rule, a rich State has turned into a poor one, he added.

Alleging that several Bharat Rashtra Samithi (BRS) leaders are encroaching upon the lands of poor people, he said the Dharani portal (the integrated land records management system by the government) is being used to cheat people in a big way. The entire KCR government is buried under corruption and anarchy reigns supreme, the BJP chief said.

It must be noted that the BJP national president arrived late to the meeting owing to reports of a technical glitch in the flight he was travelling in and obstruction of convoy by BRS workers.

Later, Nadda pointed out that under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, several initiatives and programmes have been carried out for people's benefit. He also pointed out that a large sum of funds has been released for the development of national highways and under the Jal Jeevan Mission.

Referring to the recent name change of the pink party, he ridiculed the move and said that after BRS fails on the national front, it would become VRS (Voluntary Retirement Scheme), hinting that the party leaders would quit.

THE Karnataka State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC) is all set to kickstart its ambitious inter-city electric bus service by December end.

The first bus is expected to be delivered by early next week by Hyderabad-based electric bus manufacturer Olectra Greentech Ltd.

While plans are on to operate the buses under the Union Government's Faster Adoption and Manufacturing of Electric Vehicles (FAME) scheme in at least six routes, the first bus is likely to start running between Bengaluru and Mysuru by end of this month.

A senior KSRTC official told TNIE that the first e-bus is expected to be delivered to the transport corporation by next week and they are planning to start testing it and commence intercity operations on the 150 km Bengaluru-Mysuru route.

The official said the transport corporation has placed an order for 50 electric buses and they are expected to be delivered by the end of December. Each e-bus costs around Rs 1.8 crore and will have 43 push-back seats, individual charging points and AC vents similar to Volvo buses. While the buses will be operated by private operator Olectra under Gross Cost Contract (GCC), KSRTC will pay Rs 55 per km as operational cost.

"In the initial stage, we will run the buses on routes not crossing 250 km. The electric buses will come with a capacity to cover 250 km in a single charge. Buses will be operated from Bengaluru to places like Mysuru, Tumakuru, Hassan and Chitradurga. Works are in progress to build the needed infrastructure like charging stations on the long routes," the official said.

Gadkari, Pinarayi bonhomie at project launch

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @T'Puram

UNION Road Transport and Highway minister Nitin Gadkari and Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan showered praises on each other as they laid the foundation stone of 13 National Highway projects worth ₹45,563 crore in the state on Thursday.

They also made it clear that the Centre and state will work together for Kerala's infrastructure development.

The camaraderie in the evening came even as Gadkari had, while speaking in the Lok Sabha earlier in the day, said Kerala backtracked on its commitment to bear 25% of the land acquisition expense for NH development.

Repeating this at the function in Thiruvananthapuram, he said the Centre and state will hold talks on the issue and come up with a solution soon.

"The Centre gives all assistance to Kerala in terms of NH development in Kerala. NH development is the lifeline of the state; it boosts economic and tourism development. Since Kerala has a very high land value, we proposed that the state government bear 25% of the expenses. However, the government conveyed its difficulty. We are ready to hold discussions with the government to come up with a solution," Gadkari said, seeking the state's cooperation on NH development.

At the event, Pinarayio rejected reports that the state government and the Centre were at loggerheads over NH development.

"Some believe that the state and Centre disagree on NH development. The media took this as an opportunity to create controversy. However, it's daydreaming. We have no disagreements. The union minister is very supportive of the state's highway development," he said.

SC SEEKS REPORT

KARNATAKA TO SET UP VILLAGE COURTS

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

THE Supreme Court on Thursday sought information from state governments and high courts on steps being taken to set up Gram Nyayalayas, also known as Village Panchayats. The aim of the initiative is to take the courts to the village level.

Karnataka Law Minister J C Maduswamy told TNIE that the proposal had come up for discussion at the All India Law Ministers' meeting held recently and that the state had backed the initiative. He said the state government is planning to start Gram Nyayalayas in phases in villages, wherever needed, across the state. He said a process has begun to identify efficient people in the villages who can sort out issues locally. Once Karnataka sets up the nyayalayas, it will join the club of a few states in the country that have taken judicial service to the grassroots. The other states that have made progress in this direction are Madhya Pradesh, Rajasthan, Uttar Pradesh, Kerala, Maharashtra and Orissa.

According to sources, Karnataka has formed a committee of high court judges, comprising Justices Dinesh Kumar, Prabhakar Shastry, S. Amarannanavar and S. Rachaiah, to discuss ways to implement the proposal. The government has also set aside Rs 25 lakh for this purpose. The process involves appointing a judicial officer in every village to ensure that people dont have to go to larger benches in the district to access the legal system.

Madhuswamy also said that the government is working at making the solution legally binding to ensure that issues are not squabbled upon endlessly.

SABARIMALA CROWD MESS EXPOSES LACK OF PREPAREDNESS

This is the first full pilgrimage season at Sabarimala after the pandemic, and the Lord Ayyappa temple has received more than one lakh devotees daily for the past week. On December 10, the footfall touched 1.2 lakh, and a few pilgrims and police personnel were injured due to the heavy rush. Though the Travancore Devaswom Board (TDB), which manages the temple, has extended the darshan period to 19 hours and restricted the maximum bookings in the virtual queue system to 90,000 per day, there has been no respite. Paradoxically, the cash-strapped TDB wants to admit more pilgrims to Sabarimala, but the lack of proper amenities poses challenges. While the pilgrims wait in long queues on the mountain path leading up to the temple, there is no rush in the temple foreground and the flyover leading to the sanctum sanctorum. Pilgrims wait for hours about one kilometre away from the shrine, which underscores the mismanagement aspect of the crowd control at the temple.

On Thursday, the Devaswom minister held a meeting with the stakeholders, and it was decided to bring in more regulations to manage the crowd. While this is welcome, the fact is the temple board, controlled by the state government, failed to anticipate the rush and put facilities in place. It's a pity that the pilgrimage centre that draws a huge number of people to Kerala and provides a seasonal boost to its tourism sector still lacks basic facilities. Though the Centre had sanctioned ₹100 crore under Swadeshi Darshan Scheme for infrastructure development at Sabarimala, only ₹20 crore has been utilised.

In 2005, the Centre allotted 250 acres of land at Nilakkal to develop the base camp as a transit station. The Kerala government should utilise the allocation to revamp the queue system so that more pilgrims can be accommodated. A Tirupati-model queue complex should be developed to avoid stampedes and help pilgrims wait in the queue with comfort. The temple had seen low pilgrim footfall for the last four years due to floods and Covid. That explains the huge rush this time, and the government should have been prepared. The current mess could easily lead to a tragedy. It's time the government stopped looking at only maximising revenue from the temple and began thinking about making the pilgrimage a smooth and stress-free affair.

FIX TEAM INDIA'S INJURY CRISIS SOON

Indian cricket is on crutches, literally. "Can't afford to have half-fit players representing India," were skipper Rohit Sharma's caustic words after losing the second ODI against Bangladesh last week. Sharma's words are a grim reflection on the team and its injury management. There has been a spate of injury breakdowns, and it doesn't seem to stop. One that hurt the most was missing Jasprit Bumrah's services at the T20 World Cup in Australia. Injured all-rounder Ravindra Jadeja, too, missed the flight. Pacer Mohammad Shami, who replaced Bumrah, is back in the recovery room after getting injured again.

The most disconcerting news, however, is the injuries to pacers Deepak Chahar and Kuldeep Sen. Kuldeep made his debut in the first ODI against Bangladesh. For someone like Chahar, who has spent more time in National Cricket Academy recuperating than playing, sustaining hamstring injury months after getting released is blasphemous. This also reflects poorly on the NCA, where all players go to recover. It raises questions about the monitoring process and the fitness tests they undergo. Debutant Kuldeep, on the other hand, should have been fit. He should not have had a stiff back after bowling ten overs. No wonder Rohit was cross.

Despite the Indian cricket board putting its faith in the workload management system, it seems this is not working. It's not that players are not getting breaks; they are. Take Rishabh Pant. He left the squad for a short break. Selection based on Indian Premier League performances, too, is not ideal. Four-over spells or 20 overs of batting cannot assess the fitness of a bowler or a batter. There is a fundamental flaw causing these injuries, whether lack of sports-specific training, over-exercise, players hiding injuries or too much cricket (besides international commitments, they play more than two months of IPL in the gruelling summer), we don't know.

Like Roger Binny, the new BCCI president, had said, "...why are they getting injured?... We can find out whether it's (because of) overload, whether people are not fit, or whether the exercises need to be changed. A lot of people are getting injured during training. That is not a good thing. We haven't gotten down to it yet. We will know in six months..." Binny hoped once a system is implemented, the injuries would come down. With the home ODI World Cup less than a year away, BCCI must crack the puzzle soon.

QUICK TAKE

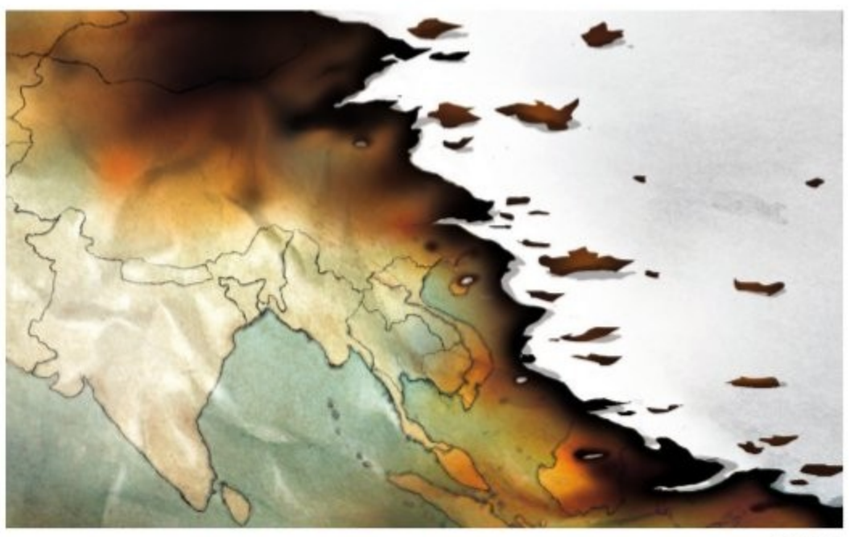
BAN ACID SALES

Records show that police registered 386 acid attack cases in India between 2018 and 2022. West Delhi reported the 387th two days ago. The government, the police or the licensing authorities fail to explain how the accused, primarily stalkers or jilted lovers, easily procure acid from street-side shops. The Supreme Court issued strict guidelines for acid sale long ago, but they are hardly enforced. The government should declare acid a restricted product, ban even regulated sales and make it available at government counters upon buyer verification. A deterrent also is treating acid attacks at par with sexual assaults with similar punishments.

All the old and new tensions are again building up around India, with the crisis in Tawang, or not too far away from the country, with the Ukraine war raging on

WHAT A POSSIBLE COLD WAR WOULD MEAN FOR ASIA

N SATHIYA MOORTHY
Policy analyst and political commentator



SOURAV ROY

The traditional India-China-Pakistan tensions continue to go up and down, reminding the nations concerned and the larger world that they cannot be wished away. After the Uri surgical strike in 2016, Doklam in 2017 and Galwan in 2020, any talk of tensions along India's land borders, including the latest clash at the Arunachal Pradesh border, have begun throwing up visions of an impending war. Analyses about China's Xi Jinping acquiring an additional five-year term and a team of his choice have only strengthened such apprehensions.

One side of this near-eternal flashpoint is North Korea's ballistic missile launches, which India, too, condemned. Of course, the four-nation Quad Malabar exercise off the Japan coast was planned long before this. This was followed by an exercise minus India plus Canada in those waters. The message from the two exercises was definitely for China.

Though China sending in Yuan Wang VI into the Indian Ocean when India had scheduled a missile test should not be linked, the earlier despatch of Yuan Wang V to Sri Lanka's Hambantota was not innocent either. It may not be as serious a concern as China's bullying of Taiwan and its power play in the South and East China Sea neighbourhoods, but there is a purpose after all.

By escalating bilateral tensions through Doklam and Galwan, after expecting India to lower its guard through the informal Xi-Modi summits at Wuhan in 2018 and Mahabalipuram in 2019, China has only revived and reinforced India's suspicions about that country.

Former Foreign Secretary Vijay Gokhale's observation: "We deal with China as a threat when it is a threat, and an opportunity when it is one", may sound over-optimistic on Indian streets though that is the functional reality.

If someone thought that all of India's immediate tensions were centred on itself, its immediate neighbours, and on Taiwan and North Korea, it is not so. Going beyond Pakistan, real trouble seems to be brewing, not very far away, in Iran.

Whether it was a part of his poll campaign near home or as a part of the post-Cold war American geo-strategic and geopolitical priority for "democratising" the world with the West's version of "liberal ways", US President Joe Biden's declaration to "free Iran" is loaded with possibilities.

The Iranian Revolution (1978) and the hostage crisis the very next year hurt the all-American pride like no other until 9/11. In a new world where the US wants to reassert its authority and reclaim its pride in the Gulf-Arab region a decade after eliminating Osama bin Laden and his Al-Qaeda, Iranian women's anti-hijab protests seem to have provided the opportunity or excuse for the US President to talk about Tehran. As if to rub salt in the wound on the reverse, Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi, a religious scholar like his seven predecessors, referred to the Iranian Revolution and left it almost at that. Charging the US and Saudi Arabia with conspiracy in the matter, Tehran threatened to "retaliate".

All this at a time when America's western allies had not given up hope that Biden's victory over Donald Trump would help reset the global clock on Iran for the better. They were hoping that they could sit with Tehran to re-work the deal to end Iran's ambitions of acquiring nuclear weapons through peaceful, negotiated means.

What makes the current Iranian situation bad, or from bad to worse, is the presence of relative peace elsewhere in the neighbourhood. Though under the 'despicable' Taliban, with its own hijab law and worse, Afghanistan is in relative peace after decades of war, violence and non-governance. Biden's talk about freeing Iran from the hijab ban and by extension, the ruling mullahs, can sound uncomfortable and unwelcome in Afghanistan. And any fresh trouble in Afghanistan or Iran can affect peace in the region. India will not be left out.

This is not to mention the relative quiet in the rest of West Asia, even if like the graveyard kind. Israel continues to poke and provoke Palestinians to secure itself, but there has been a near-nil regional or global reaction in recent months and years. Syria, where a multilateral war was raging, has been silent for some time. The IS, though not out, is down, just for now. This is as far as the situation in the west of India and South Asia goes.

All these old and new tensions are again building up around India, with the Tawang crisis, or not too far away from India, with the Ukraine war raging on. There is no sight of an early end, militarily or through negotiations. Though the economic fallout of the war has been global, with the Third World's post-Covid recovery affected, the war itself has become more or less localised.

In the decades after the Second World War, the West ensured that wars did not hit their gates, or so it seemed. Looking closely at every major war, even those that did not involve India-China and India-Pakistan were inching closer to the subcontinent. There was the Korean War (1950–53), followed by the longish Vietnam War (1955–75), the Iranian Revolution (1978–79), the Iran-Iraq War (1980-88), the Soviet occupation of Afghanistan (1979–89), and the two Gulf Wars (in 1990–91 and 2003–11 respectively)—each of them bringing military tensions closer to India.

The world has understood the Cold War as an unfought battle between two nations perceived as equals. Post-Cold War, there have been multiple flashpoints and firing lines where the not-so-benign presence of the US, whether direct or by proxy, can be felt.

Instead, the US seems to be keen on keeping the world unipolar, the attempt having failed once after the 'Clash of Civilisations' and Islamic terrorism refused to behave as anticipated.

Yes, China has to be stopped on its track to acquire superpower status, but NATO and India should tell the US that this "unfinished task" should be its main agenda. Any deviation would have independent consequences for other regions of the world, beginning with Asia/South Asia, where India's concerns and consequences would only mount.

KASHI TAMIL SANGAMAM: MODI'S CULTURAL TOUR DE FORCE

DR S VAIDHYASUBRAMANIAM
Vice-Chancellor, SASTRA Deemed University

Mahakavi Subramania Bharati sang: "We shall invent devices to hear the poetic words from Kashi in Kanchi." Little did we realise the prophetic undercurrent of his poetic foresight at that time. Now, Kashi Tamil Sangamam (KTS) has emerged to be a true reflection of Bharati's song as the entire nation witnessed this month-long civilisational carnival from different parts of India and abroad. While the visiting delegates and guests from Tamil Nadu were physically connected to the KTS emotions, the remote audience was digitally connected with varied emoticons. True to the words of Bharati, the sound and spirituality of Kashi was heard not only in Kanchi but also all over the world, thanks to technology.

With over a 2,00,000 inclusive footfall, millions of digital footprints, 800 artists from Tamil Nadu and 500 from Kashi, 75–100 experts from Tamil Nadu and Kashi from diverse backgrounds, friendly matches (cricket, hockey, kabaddi, kho-kho, etc.) involving Tamil Nadu and UP teams, and 300 special guests from different walks of life, the KTS enriched the civilisational capital of Kashi and Tamil Nadu in its truest multi-forms.

In addition, the special exhibition that displayed the handlooms, handicrafts, textiles, literature, cuisine and other forms of arts and crafts from Tamil Nadu showcased different skills and also served as a commerce platform for the artisans from Tamil Nadu, who not only touched the hearts and tickled the tummies of Kashivaasis but also made them touch their wallets through their quality workmanship. To top it all, what captured the imagination of KTS amongst the visiting delegates was the permanent image of the warm hospitality showered by the organisers during the cold winter. Armed with a platoon of volunteers, the organisers of KTS made every commoner-visitor from Tamil Nadu feel like the King of Kashi. Here is why:

Kashi Yatra for people from Tamil Nadu is a 'dream coming true' moment as it epitomises a significant achievement in a Tamilian's lifetime. In the olden days, this yatra was undertaken by walking and later in bullock carts, and it took years for people to go to Kashi and return home. The sincere hardship they endure and the divine blessings they accrue make them such saintly figures that local people worship the yatra returnees. The dhams and choultries built by the Nagarattar community from Tamil Nadu throughout the route served as places for stay and food for this arduous 'Yatrathon'. As transport facilities improved with time, the Ganga-Cauvery Express train from Tamil Nadu to Varanasi became the connecting transport of choice. As a small kid, I recall travelling on this train with my grandfather, who undertook this trip to perform rituals at Kashi for his ancestors. When Kashi Yatra is undertaken by a commoner in the olden days, the entire household plans this event six to nine months in advance with ticket bookings, place of stay, local arrangements, etc. On reaching Kashi, beginning with the negotiations at the train station with the local rickshaw, the struggle for stay, the thronging crowd at the shores of Ganga, and the rush to Vishwanath temple through the narrow streets, are challenging but cherished moments that stay for eternity. The delegates of KTS had a different experience.

> Kashi Yatra for people from Tamil Nadu is a 'dream coming true' moment as it epitomises a significant achievement in a Tamilian's lifetime. In the olden days, this yatra was undertaken by walking and later in bullock carts, and it took years for people to go to Kashi and return home

In one of the participant's own words, "We were treated like royal family members." Beginning with a seamless registration and train booking, a festive send-off from the train stations at Tamil Nadu, Rameswaram, Trichy, Coimbatore and Chennai, the specially curated bogies were like a palace on wheels with homely hospitality inside the train, ensuring good food, care and a journey filled with joyous activities. The delegates were received in major stations with sounds of music and showers of flowers.

As the train chugged into the Varanasi platform, the fitting welcome for the student delegates was not only the midnight reception given by the Union Minister of Education Dharmendra Pradhan, but also the personal interaction they had with Prime Minister Narendra Modi on the inaugural day of November 19, 2022, which was the cherry on top.

Throughout the month, delegates from Tamil Nadu left for Varanasi in twelve different batches, and every visitor's festive reception was followed by a lifetime experience that included academic sessions, a holy dip in Ganga, a Ganga cruise and aarti, a visit to Kashi Vishwanath corridor, Sarnath, Ayodhya, Prayagraj Triveni, cultural evenings, visits to the local museum, street walks in Kashi, interaction with people, and familiarising themselves with the Kashi culture.

The Kashi Vishwanath temple in the olden days could accommodate only a few thousand every day, and the darshan in the sanctum was a momentary flash. Today, the newly built Kashi Vishwanath corridor that was inaugurated by Prime Minister Modi in December 2021, sees over a lakh footfalls every day. The visiting delegates felt they were not one among the lakh but the only one with providential luck to be proximally blessed by Lord Vishwanath. The unexpected 'State-Guest' status to visitors was planned and executed to perfection.

True to the desire of the prime minister, every visiting delegate was treated as his personal guest. As the delegates and visitors return after sharing and showcasing Tamil Nadu's pride and as is the usual practice to leave something behind in Kashi, the Tamilians leave tons of gratuitous affection at Kashi, carrying back a Sangamam of eternally etched memories for the generations to come. In short: Kashi Tamil Sangamam is Modi's civilisational tour de force connecting the past with present for future.

Opposition must support govt

Why are the opposition parties creating unwanted issues in Parliament regarding the problems in LAC? It is a very sensitive, national security issue which should not be discussed this way. All parties, irrespective of differences of opinion, should support the government when it comes to an event as serious as this.

India won't give up territory

Apropos of Yangtse incursion is a precursor for more Chinese LAC pushes (Dec 15). China attempting to march into the Tawang sector of Arunachal Pradesh, as rightly pointed out in the editorial, is premeditated to assess the military preparedness on the Indian side. It isn't 1962 now. With a determined Modi at the helm, India won't part with even an inch of Indian territory.

Lacunae in Goa's civil code

Apropos of Goa's uniform civil code not a perfect model (Dec 14). Grateful to Arun Sinha for raising awareness about the inequality shown towards women in a patriarchal society like Goa and the gaps in its model making implementation difficult. However, society has changed since 1860! Amendments need to be made by studying issues like domestic violence, gender equality, etc. This editorial was a super eye-opener!

Jaishankar slams Bilawal for raising Kashmir in UN

Pakistan does not have credentials to sermonise, says Jaishankar

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

EXTERNAL Affairs Minister, Dr S Jaishankar, lambasted Pakistan after the nation's Foreign Minister Bilawal Bhutto Zardari, raked up the Kashmir during a UN Security Council meeting in New York on Wednesday. "A country that hosted Osama bin Laden and attacked a neighbouring Parliament, indulges in state sponsored terrorism, does not have the credentials to 'sermonise' before the powerful UN organ," Jaishankar said in response to Bhutto raising Kashmir.

Chairing a UNSC open debate on 'Maintenance of International Peace and Security: New Orientation for Reformed Multilateralism', Jaishankar said, "The credibility of the United Nations depends on its effective response to the key challenges of our times - be it pandemics, climate change, conflicts or terrorism. While we search for the best solutions, what our discourse must never accept is the normalisation of such threats. The question of justifying what the world regards as unacceptable should not even arise."

Bhutto had earlier said, "If you want to see the success of multilateralism then you can allow implementation of UNSC resolution when it comes to Kashmir, prove multilateralism succeeds, prove UNSC under your (India) presidency can succeed & deliver peace in our region." Among the over 60 speakers listed for the debate was Bhutto, who in his remarks to the Council, raised the Kashmir issue. India's Permanent Representative to the UN Ambassador Ruchira Kamboj was chairing the debate when Bhutto spoke in the Council. Later, as Jaishankar presided over the debate, he gave a strong response to Bhutto's comments.

Jaishankar arrived here on Tuesday to preside over two signature events on counter-terrorism and reformed multilateralism being held under India's current Presidency of the UN Security Council, before the curtains come down this month on the country's two-year tenure as an elected member of the powerful 15-nation.

Meanwhile, Jaishankar, along with ambassadors of Bangladesh, Egypt, Nepal, France and Morocco also launched a 'Group of friends' to promote accountability of crimes against peacekeepers. Meanwhile, at the UNSC meeting on counter terrorism under Indian Presidency began with a minute of silence in memory of victims of terrorism. Jaishankar also called for addressing double standards on dealing with countering terrorism leading to concerns of politicisation at UNSC meet.

'Pak must accept reality, stop anti-India propaganda'

Jaishankar in his strong response to Bhutto's comments referred to the mastermind behind the September 11 attacks in the US, Osama bin Laden, who was living in Abbottabad. Terrorists of the Pakistan-based Lashkar-e-Taiba and Jaish-e-Mohammed had attacked Indian Parliament in 2001. India-Pakistan tension have spiked since abrogation of Article 370 to revoke J&K's special status on August 5, 2019. India has categorically told the international community that the scrapping of Article 370 was its internal matter. It advised Pakistan to accept the reality and stop all anti-India propaganda.

Parl panel livid as DIAL CEO skips meet

AMIT MUKHERJEE @ New Delhi

A Department-related Parliamentary Standing Committee on Transport, Tourism and Culture headed by YSR-Rajya Sabha MP Vijayasai Reddy, on Thursday expressed extreme displeasure and unhappiness over the absence of CEO of Delhi Airport International Limited (DIAL), Videsh Jaipuria, from the committee meeting despite being served summons to appear in connection with the heavy uncontrollable congestion at the IGI airport.

"The members of the parliamentary standing committee are extremely unhappy over the non-attendance of the CEO DIAL despite being issued summons," said a member of the committee. The meeting was attended by the deputy MD Narayan Rao and other DIAL officials on behalf of the CEO.

Reddy, heading the Standing Committee had issued summons to Jaipuriar on Tuesday, taking cognisance of the ongoing rush and extremely high congestion at the Delhi IGI Airport and asked him to appear before the committee Thursday in the wake of passengers facing massive discomfort and anguish due to long queues at check-ins and security area while waiting to board their flights at the Delhi airport.

The rush and congestion continue unabated even despite the Ministry of Civil Aviation stepping in and directing Delhi Airport authorities and airlines to take measure to put things in order.

In fact, on the same day when the committee headed by Reddy issued summons to DIAL CEO, he MoCA has pulled up the private airlines for leaving their counters at several airports unattended adding to the woes of the passengers and compounding the congestion chaos at Delhi and other airports across India. In a letter to the airlines, the MoCA said "It has come to the notice of the Ministry that the airlines check-in counters at certain airports are found unmanned or inadequately manned during early morning hours leading to congestion at the airports, thereby causing inconvenience to the passengers."

The MoCA while asking airlines to take corrective measures had also asked the airlines to "place real-time-data on their social media feeds regarding waiting time at respective airports' entry gate."

"It has also been observed that while certain airlines have been leaving their counters unattended at some airports, they have been issuing alerts to passengers through SMS and other messaging platforms to reach airport several hours in advance before departure" said a senior official in the ministry adding, "this mindless action of the airlines is adding to the congestion chaos."

India holds night trials of 5,000-km range nuclear-capable Agni-5

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

INDIA on Thursday successfully carried out night trials of Agni-5 nuclear-capable ballistic missile which can hit targets beyond 5,000 km, news agency ANI reported citing defence sources. The test was carried out to validate new technologies and equipment on the missile which is now lighter than before.

The trial has proved the capability to enhance the range of the Agni-5 missile if required, the sources told the news agency. In October last year, India carried out the successful launch of the surface-to-surface ballistic missile, Agni-5 from APJ Abdul Kalam Island, Odisha. The missile, which uses a three-stage solid-fuelled engine, is capable of striking targets at ranges up to 5,000 kilometres with a very high degree of accuracy, the defence ministry said in a statement.

The successful test of Agni-5 is in line with India's stated policy to have 'credible minimum deterrence' that underpins the commitment to 'No First Use', it had said.

In June 2018, India successfully flight-tested Agni 5 from Dr APJ Abdul Kalam Island (Wheeler Island). After the test, the ministry said that all the radars, electro-optical tracking stations and telemetry stations tracked the vehicle all through the course of the trajectory. "All the mission objectives have been achieved," the ministry said.

Broadly falling into the category of the Inter-Continental Ballistic Missile category, it can carry a payload of 1.5 tonnes and weighs around 50 tonnes. India is the eighth country to have intercontinental ballistic missiles after the US, UK, Russia, China, France, Israel and North Korea. Agni series of missiles include from 1 to 5 and Agni -V, the most advanced of them was first tested in 2012. At present, in addition to the Agni-5, other Agni missiles that India has are: Agni-1 with a 700-km range, Agni-2 with a 2,000-km range, Agni-3 and Agni-4 with 2,500 km to more than 3,500 km range.

MORMUGAO

Navy to induct new destroyer on Sunday

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Indian Navy's latest indigenous guided stealth missile destroyer, Mormugao would be be commissioned by Defence Minister Rajnath Singh, at the Naval Dockyard, Mumbai on December 18. Mormugao was built at Mazagon Dock Shipbuilders Ltd (MDSL) as part of the Project 15B destroyers or the Visakhapatnam-class. On November 24, the MDSL delivered the ship to the Indian Navy. The event marks the formal induction of the two of the four Visakhapatnam-class destroyers.

"The ships under this project will have 75 percent indigenous content and this includes weapons and sensors also," according to sources.

Not only the indigenous content has gone up with the subsequent projects, it has also led to speed up into the construction period. The 15B is the third such indigenous project to manufacture modern destroyers with Project 15 (Delhi Class) having 42 percent indigenous content which was raised to 57 percent in the Project 15A (Kolkata Class).

Mormugao is packed with sophisticated 'state of the art' weapons and sensors such as Surface to Surface Missile and Surface to Air Missiles. The ship is fitted with a modern Surveillance Radar which provides target data to the gunnery weapon systems of the ship.

SC to hear pleas against electoral bonds scheme in last week of Jan

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday said that the pleas to consider referring the case of electoral bonds to a larger constitution bench will require hearing and posted the matter for consideration in the last week of January next year.

The issue of electoral bonds has remained under consideration before the top court since 2015 following a petition filed by Association for Democratic Reforms and others. Other petitions also challenged the orders passed by the government from time to time allowing political parties to obtain funds from other sources including corporate.

A bench of Justices BR Gavai and Vikram Nath posted the pleas pursuant to the submissions made by advocate Prashant Bhushan. Terming the issue which the court has to adjudicate as "extremely urgent" and of "constitutional importance", Bhushan said that the issue needs to be referred to larger bench.

"Unless we notice some conflict, we can't refer it to a larger bench. It's the prerogative of CJI. We'll hear it on that issue as to whether it should go to a larger bench or not," Justice Gavai had remarked.

The petition states that these donations enjoy 100 per cent tax exemption and even foreign companies can donate through Indian subsidiaries.

The plea had also contended that the identity of the donors could never be known to the public and referred to reservations raised by the Reserve Bank of India and Election Commission.

"The apprehension that foreign corporate houses may buy the bonds and attempt to influence the electoral process in the country is also misconceived. Under Clause 3 of the Scheme, the Bonds may be purchased only by a person, who is a citizen of India or incorporated or established in India," SC in its order had said.

SC in 2019 by introducing an interim safeguard had asked all political parties to submit details of receipts of the electoral bonds to the Election Commission of India (ECI) in a sealed cover.

Bail to convict in Godhra train burning case

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday granted bail to one of the convicts Farukh who was serving life imprisonment in the Godhra train coach burning case. A bench of CJI DY Chandrachud and Justice PS Narasimha in their order said, "We direct the applicant to be released on bail."

Farukh's counsel had told the court that he had been in jail since 2004. Opposing his release, SG said that Farukh was not only pelting stones at the coach but also instigated others to do the same. "He instigated others, pelted stones and injured the passengers. Under normal circumstances, pelting stones may be less grave of an offence but this is different," SG added.

Court's order was passed while dealing with a plea which was preferred against Gujarat HC's 2017 verdict that had appraised the conviction of the convicts.

The HC had commuted the death sentence which was awarded to 11 convicts in the Godhra train burning case to life imprisonment. Earlier, the court had asked the government to specify "individual roles" of these convicts.

VAPOUR OVER OCEANS AS LIMITLESS SOURCE OF FRESHWATER

Scientists are vying to tap the almost limitless supply of freshwater existing in the form of water vapour above our oceans. A new study at University of Illinois suggests investments in new infrastructure capable of harvesting oceanic water vapour as a solution to limited supplies of freshwater in various locations around the world. The study evaluated 14 water-stressed locations for the feasibility of a hypothetical infrastructure capable of capturing water vapour from above the ocean and condensing it into fresh water.

PEDESTRIANS LOVE OBSTACLES TO SMOOTH PAVEMENTS... LIKE IN INDIA

This study will find resonance among Indian pedestrians who will waste no time to point out they do it all the time. A University of Cambridge study has found that about 80% of pedestrians take routes with obstacles like balancing beams, stepping stones and high steps over safe pavements. Researchers point out that millions across the world are failing to meet the recommended targets for physical activity, especially after the pandemic. And having discovered that most pedestrians tend to prefer obstacles-ridden paths over safe pavements, they suggest designing walkways, in the form of "active landscape" routes featuring such obstacles rather than safe pavements. Exercising "on the go" is key to improving upon the lack of physical activity. Walking along smooth pavements only provides mild exercise.

A SOFT GEL-ROBOT POWERED ONLY BY TEMPERATURE VARIATIONS

Researchers from Johns Hopkins University have developed a soft robot made of gel — called Gelbot — that can worm its way around inside the human body or on external surfaces to deliver drugs to affected areas or carry out a range of other functions. The Gelbot does not require batteries, wiring, or any external power supply. It can move just on the swelling and shrinking of the gel it is made of when exposed to temperature variations. The study shows how manipulation of shape, dimensions and patterning of gels while exposed to varying temperatures that cause the gel to expand and contract, can tune morphology to embody an intelligence for locomotion. The swelling and shrinking of gels can be strategically manipulated to move robots forward and backward on flat surfaces, or to essentially have them crawl with a wave-like motion. The gelbots, which were created by 3D printing, would be easy to mass produce. —Johns Hopkins University

Will turn colonies into 'graveyards', militants to Pandits

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

> The resistance fighters won't allow Israeli type settlements in Kashmir and anybody involved in this will be dealt harshly. Those contractors involved in raising these structures also will not be spared (sic)
>
> Militants' letter

THE militants in fresh threat to migrant Kashmiri Pandit PM package employees have warned of targetting them and turning the transit colonies being constructed for them in militancy-hit Valley into "graveyards".

In a fresh threat on blacklisted blog "Kashmir Fight", Lashkar-e-Taiba affiliate "The Resistance Front (TRF)" warned that the list of PM package Pandit employees recently released is warning to all PM package employees not to "get carried away with regimes' filthy promises". The militants had released a hit list of 56 Pandit employees along with their details and postings earlier this month on the blacklisted blog site.

The threat had added to fear among the 5,000 PM package Pandit employees, who are on strike and not attending their official duties in Valley since May 12 when a Pandit employee Rahul Bhat was shot dead by militants inside Tehsildar's office in central Kashmir. The striking PM package Pandit employees are demanding relocation to Jammu.

In the fresh threat, militants warned that the settlements (transit colonies being constructed for PM package Pandit employees in the Valley) will "become a graveyard for them".

"The resistance fighters won't allow Israeli type settlements in Kashmir and anybody involved in this will be dealt harshly. Those contractors involved in raising these structures also will not be spared (sic)," warns the message.

The militant threat was issued after Lt Governor Manoj Sinha on conducted on-site inspection and reviewed ongoing construction work of the transit accommodations for PM Package employees at Baramulla and Bandipora in north Kashmir. In July 2021, Lieutenant Governor administration approved transfer of land in five districts of Valley for construction of 2,744 flats for migrant Kashmiri Pandit employees in the Valley under the 2015 Prime Minister's Development Package.

The locations include Marhama-Bijbehara in Anantnag district, Wandhama-Lar in Ganderbal district, Fatehpora in Baramulla district, Allowpora-Keegam in Shopian district, Odina-Sumbal in Bandipora district and Khullangam Bagh in Kupwara district. A total of 1,680 units would be constructed to accommodate the migrant employees with the highest number of 480 units in Bandipora, followed by 336 in Baramulla, 288 in Kupwara and 192 each in rest of the three districts.

Nitish blames drinkers for deaths

Deputy CM Tejashwi also defends prohibition policy as hooch toll mounts to 40 in Bihar

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

AS the death toll of Saran hooch tragedy mounted to 40 on Thursday, Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar defended his government and said that who drink alcohol will die. Meanwhile, opposition BJP remained adamant on his resignation.

On Thursday, Saran's district magistrate Rajesh Meena confirmed only 26 deaths, but unofficial sources put the toll at more than 40. Sources said that a large number of people have also lost their vision after consuming the spurious liquor. At least 10 people are undergoing treatment at Saran district hospital and Patna Medical College Hospital.

At least 51 suspects have been taken into custody for questioning. A day after losing his temper in the state assembly after BJP MLAs started raising questions on the hooch tragedy, Nitish told newspersons, "Those who consume liquor will die. People should be careful."

"Last time, when people lost their lives after consuming spurious liquor, someone said they should be compensated. If someone consumes liquor, they'll die. An example is before us," he said.

Nitish said that while many people in the state had stopped consuming alcohol following enforcement of the prohibition. He said that some troublemakers were still left, adding that he had directed officials to identify the actual guilty and nab them.

> Last time, when people lost their lives after consuming spurious liquor, someone said they should be compensated. If someone consumes liquor, they'll die. An example is before us
>
> Nitish Kumar, Bihar CM

Echoing Nitish's views, deputy chief minister Tejashwi Yadav said, "What the CM means to say that a wrong deed has unwarranted consequences. It is also not proper to link hooch deaths with prohibition. Even in states where liquor is not banned, hooch tragedies do take place".

Countering the attack launched by BJP over the deaths in the hooch tragedy, Tejashwi contended that the track records of BJP-ruled states were worst in terms of hooch tragedies while quoting a statement given by Union Minister of State for Home in the Parliament on July 19.

"The Union Minister while quoting NCRB data had stated that between 2016 and 2020, Madhya Pradesh recorded the highest number of 1,214 hooch deaths followed by Karnataka where the number was 909. Both states are ruled by the BJP," Tejashwi added. Even the dry state of Gujarat fared much worse than Bihar, he contended.

"Will BJP leaders ask CMs of their party-ruled states to step down as they are asking Nitish Kumar," the deputy chief minister countered.

He asserted that BJP had no moral right to speak on the issue of violation of prohibition and pointed out the alleged involvement of former minister Ram Surat Rai's brother in the liquor trade.

BJP is apprehensive about its prospects in the 2024 Lok Sabha polls and that is the reason it is indulging in all sorts of drama, he added.

Photos of Sukhu's shoe mix-up goes viral

Pieces are being written all over about the simplicity of Himachal CM Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu, whose photos from a party event where he had wrongfully switch one of his shoes has gone viral recently. During the race for the CM post, Sukhu had attended a Congress Legislative Party meet, where he was seeing wearing shoes of different colours. Apparently, Sukhu mixed up his footwear after he had lost one of his shoes. He later noticed that he was wearing the wrong pair and photos of his simplicity went viral. The other shoe was of a photojournalist who had at the same time lost one of his shoes in the commotion.

When Harsimrat rode a Royal Enfield

Former Union minister and Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD) leader Harsimrat Kaur Badal, who is Member of Parliament from Bathinda, surprised everyone present at the Virasati Mela in her constituency as she reached unannounced driving a Royal Enfield motorcycle. Harsimrat even took chief guest at the event AAP MLA Jagroop Gill for a spin on her motorbike. Photos were clicked of the two after the AAP MLA had reluctantly agreed to her offer to ride pillion with her. Gill was also left blushing when Harsimrat quipped, "Hun bhaja ke lai jayiye," and all those present burst into laughter.

Expelled SAD leader's exposé on Badals

The relation between Shiromani Akali Dal president Sukhbir Singh Badal and his brother-in-law Adesh Partap Singh Kairon have always remained strained but nobody spoke about it in public. But the cat is out of the bag as former party leader and ex-SGPC president Bibi Jagir Kaur – who was some time back shown the door from the party – reportedly told party cadre of her constituency that she had received complaints from within the Badal family that Sukhbir himself had damaged the party. The discontent was voiced by none other that his elder sister Parneet Kaur – Kairon's spouse. She even confided that Sukhbir had wronged her, claimed the former SGPC chief.

LACK OF EVIDENCE

Circumstantial proof enough to convict corrupt babus, says SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

A Supreme Court Constitution bench on Thursday ruled that courts can convict corrupt bureaucrats on the basis of circumstantial proof in the absence of direct evidence.

Terming corruption by public officers a gigantic problem, the bench headed by Justice S Abdul Nazeer observed, "In the absence of evidence of the complainant (direct or primary, oral or documentary evidence) it is permissible to draw an inferential deduction of culpability or guilt of public servant. Under section 7 and 13 of the Prevention of Corruption Act based on other evidence adduced by the prosecution." "In case the complainant turns hostile or dies or is unavailable to let in his evidence during trial, demand of illegal gratification can be proved by letting in the evidence of any other witness who can again let in evidence either orally or by documentary evidence or prosecution can prove the case by circumstantial evidence. The trial does not abate nor does it result in acquittal of accused public servant."

If a bribe-giver offers illegal gratification without there being any demand from the public servant and the latter accepts the offer, it would be a case of acceptance under Section 7 of the PC Act. But, if the accused public servant makes a demand for a bribe and accepts the payment, it would be a case of obtainment and an offence under 13 (1)(d)(i) and (ii) of the Act, the SC said.

Farmers lay siege to toll plazas in Punjab over debt waiver

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

FARMERS of Punjab on Thursday intensified their protest and assured commuters of toll-free travel at 18 plazas in 10 districts of the state against the AAP government for ignoring their demands. Tense situation prevailed at a few places after farmers and toll plaza employees entered into heated arguments.

The influential Kisan Mazdoor Sangharsh Committee (KMSC) – which has presence in Majha and Doaba regions of the state besides some parts of Malwa region – had given a call to hold protests at 18 toll plazas for a month from December 15 to January 15. The reason: to press the state to accept their various demands, including a farm debt waiver, remunerative prices for crops and compensation for damage to crops.

Toll-free travel will be ensured by the protesting farmers at Amritsar (Kathunagal, Mannawala and Chiddan near Attari), Tarn Taran (Usma and Mannan), Gurdaspur, Hoshiarpur, Pathankot, Ferozepur, Fazilka, Moga, Jalandhar and Kapurthala districts have been made toll free.

KMSC general secretary Sarwan Singh Pandher said, "The government is pro-corporate and this is the reason why we have decided to make toll plazas free thus now any vehicle passing through the toll plazas will not pay any toll till January 15."

Amarinder meets PM in Delhi, flags 'poor' law & order in Punjab

Former Punjab Chief Minister Captain Amarinder Singh on Thursday met Prime Minister Narendra Modi in the Parliament House Complex in Delhi, and flagged the law-and-order situation in Punjab terming it quite grim. He added that he has seen the movement of Jarnail Singh Bhindranwale and does not want those to be repeated. Referring to growing clout of Amritpal Singh and his supporters and terming that it was a matter of grave concern, Amarinder, who joined the saffron party in September said, "The incident of arson outside a Gurdwara in Jalandhar by supporters of Amritpal Singh is worrisome. He is fashioning himself after Bhindranwale. The situation is quite grim."

Maha announces compensation hike for rain-hit farmers

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE Maharashtra government gave a New Year gift to its farmers by increasing compensation to rain-affected farmers on Thursday.

According to Maharashtra government's issued notification, the non-irrigated land owning farmers will now get ₹13,600 against e arlier ₹6,800 for per hectare damaged crops. The irrigated farmers will now get ₹27,000 against earlier Rs 13,500 per hectare damage. The orchid farmers will get ₹36,000 compensation against earlier ₹18,000 compensation per hectare damage. The govt will give maximum compensation up to three hectares of damage against earlier two hectares of damaged crops.

The state has earmarked ₹5,439 crore fund for allocation and disbursement for damage to crops owned by farmers in the state.

Maharashtra government has received the demand for compensation region-wise. The Amaravati region has put up the demand of ₹1,862 crore, while Nagpur region has asked for ₹314 crore while Pune region has demanded Rs 46 crore as additional funds to pay the farmers whose crops were damaged in unseasonal rain in the state.

As per government criteria for compensation, in any place in the last 24 hour there should be 60 5MM rainfall record and for the same reason the damage should be more than 33%, then only the compensation to farmers will be given as per new rates.

Maharashtra Agriculture Minister Abdul Sattar on Thursday said that he has instructed the crop insurance companies to distribute the pending compensation to farmers whose crops were damaged in rain. The compensation is given under the Pradhan Mantri Crop Insurance Scheme. Under the Pradhan Mantri Crop Insurance scheme, there are a total 57,19,167 beneficiaries farmers in Maharashtra. So far, the total amount ₹1,966 crore to 43,86,763 farmers has been disbursed to farmers by insurance companies. The remaining amount will be also transferred into the farmers accounts.

NOW, MUSLIM OUTFIT OBJECTS TO DEEPIKA, SRK-STARRER PATHAAN

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

MORE trouble seems to be in store for Shah Rukh Khan-Deepika Padukone starrer film 'Pathaan'.

A day after Narottam Mishra, the Home Minister of Madhya Pradesh objected to Padukone's saffron bikini in the movie's first released song 'Besharam Rang', a Muslim outfit too has demanded banning the film.

The Delhi headquartered All India Muslim Tewhar Committee has demanded a ban on the movie unless the title of the film is changed and objectionable scenes are removed.

"I've received dozens of phone calls from Muslims from across the country in the past two days, in which we've been told that the movie contains obscene scenes and shows Islam in bad light. Naming such a film as Pathaan amounts to insulting sentiments of the Pathaan clan. We call for banning the movie, unless its name is changed...," said Peerzada Khurram Miyan Chishti, Bhopal-based head of the outfit.

"Soon our units in Mumbai and Telangana will take legal action against the makers and actors of the movie by lodging FIRs. If the local police don't take action, then we'll move the court. It hardly matters whether SRK is featured in the movie or not, our demand for banning will not change, irrespective of his presence in the film," the AIMTC head added.

Cabinet to be formed after House session, says Sukhu after meeting with Kharge

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

HECTIC lobbying for cabinet berths are underway in Himachal Pradesh. Meanwhile, Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu on Thursday said that the cabinet will be formed after the upcoming assembly session.

Sukhu, along with all newly-elected MLAs of the Congress, met party chief Mallikarjun Kharge at his residence here. This was his first visit to the national capital after being elected as chief minister.

Interacting with media persons after the meeting, Sukhu said, "The Himachal Cabinet will be formed soon and you will be informed accordingly. The cabinet will be formed after the Vidhan Sabha session." He added that as he was accompanied by state Congress president Pratibha Singh and all elected MLAs, including deputy chief Minister Mukesh Agnihotri. During his meeting with legislators, Kharge told them to remain united and asked them to share power with all party workers. He also urged them to remain connected with the grassroots level and serve the people of Himachal Pradesh earnestly. Kharge told the party leadership in the state to fill up all vacancies in the government and make appointments in the boards and corporations soon.

The Congress chief asked the chief minister to share power with party workers so that they also feel the ownership of the government and work more closely with public, sources said. The party will ensure that there is equitable share of power in the hill state between various factions, they added. Terming the meeting as a courtesy meeting, Sukhu said, "We had come to thank the Congress president as he had campaigned for us in Himachal elections. All 40 MLAs and PCC chief Pratibha Singh has come and thanked Kharge ji on how he extended the party's support."

"Kharge ji told us to serve the people of Himachal with our hearts and thanked the people of Himachal for electing a Congress government," Sukhu said.

MORE WE FIDDLE WITH PANINI'S GRAMMAR, MORE IT ELUDES US

"BECAUSE of the misunderstanding and misinterpretation by traditional scholars, we were getting grammatically incorrect forms. My dissertation is on the understanding that 'param' (in '1.4.2 vipratisedhe param karyam') meant, between rules applicable to the left and right sides of a word, that the user of the grammar should choose the rule applicable to the right side and not the serial order thereafter. I spent a lot of time with a lot of derivatives before I came to the conclusion, because Panini's algorithms produce grammatically correct words and sentences without errors. His grammar is self-sufficient. I did not add any metarule to understand the master (Panini)," said the researcher.

Rajpopat said once he decoded Panini and his "language machine", it became easy to feed in the base and suffix words and watch them turn into grammatically correct words and sentences through a step-by-step process.

"Computer scientists working on natural language processing gave up on rule-based approaches over 50 years ago... So teaching computers how to combine the speaker's intention with Panini's rule-based grammar to produce human speech would be a major milestone in the history of human interaction with machines, as well as in India's intellectual history," he said about the potential of teaching Sanskrit grammar to computers.

"Panini had an extraordinary mind and he built a machine unrivalled in human history. He didn't expect us to add new ideas as to his rules. The more we fiddle with Panini's grammar, the more it eludes us," he said.

Speaking about his journey as a research scholar, Rajpopat said he was a student of mathematics.

"I was always into patterns, problem solving, coding, numbers etc. I did my graduation in economics but for postgraduation, I wanted to take up a subject I loved. During one of my visits to a Navaratri pandal, I was informed about a retired professor in Mumbai, who taught Panini's grammar. I approached her and joined her classes," he narrated. Rajpopat did his Masters at Oxford, and met his supervisor at Cambridge, Professor of Sanskrit, Vincenzo Vergiani, who motivated and mentored him during his research.

Rajpopat's research may now mean that Panini's grammar can be taught to computers for the first time.

"I learnt that asking the right questions is a skill. One has to be obsessed about one's work. The role of a teacher cannot be undervalued," he said.

'SANSKRIT GRAMMAR EASIER TO UNDERSTAND NOW, BUT THESIS NEEDS VALIDATION'

"What the Cambridge scholar (Rishi Rajpopat) seems to have done is to discover that a new interpretation of the word 'Param' (in Ashtadhyayi) can result in more natural derivations and without having to add many rules for exceptions that arise with the earlier interpretations... His new interpretation is that the word 'Param' in the metarule is applicable in the part that is on the "right side" of the word, not the rule that comes later in the Ashtadhyayi. This seems to reduce the number of exceptions and hence be easier to explain and understand. Note that this observation has to be validated by scholars of Sanskrit after a close reading of the thesis and its applicability to the whole corpus of Sanskrit. Also, note that the structure of Ashtadhyayi is more or less the same except when it comes to selecting the next rule when there is contention in the contexts discussed earlier. However, the contribution is significant as this issue has occupied the great grammarians for the past two-three millennia."

Largest strike by UK nurses disrupts hospital services

1,00,000 nursing staff stop work for 12 hours demanding wage hike

LONDON

UK nurses on Thursday staged an unprecedented one-day strike in a fight for better wages and working conditions, despite warnings patients could be put at risk.

Up to 1,00,000 members of the Royal College of Nursing (RCN) in England, Wales and Northern Ireland stopped work for 12 hours from 8.00 am (GMT) after rejecting a pay deal.

The strike action means large numbers of outpatient appointments and operations have been cancelled.

The RCN's industrial action — the first in its 106-year history — is part of a surging wave of stoppages by public and private sector employees as spiralling inflation outstrips wages growth. Outside St Thomas' Hospital in central London, nurses on picket lines chanted slogans and held aloft placards urging "Pay us our worth" and "It's time to pay nursing staff fairly". They were joined by England's chief nursing officer Ruth May, according to The Times. At Aintree University Hospital in Liverpool, northwest England, one nurse said striking was "the only way we can put our point across".

"The public need to understand the pressures that everyone's under," said Pamela Jones, who has been a nurse for 32 years. "You've only go to come to A&E (accident and emergency) to see the queues, there's no beds." Another staff nurse, Kelly Hopkins, added: "There are more and more nurses using the food bank, which is just not acceptable.

"They're coming in cold, they're going without good food to feed their children. It's just crazy." Union leaders said nurses were overworked due to staff shortages. RCN general secretary Pat Cullen said it was a "tragic day" for nurses, patients and the NHS that they had to take such action. She said there were currently 50,000 vacant nursing posts and more needed to be done to stop staff leaving for better-paid jobs in supermarkets and retail.

The RCN wants a pay rise significantly above inflation, which surged to a 41-year high of 11.1% in October, falling slightly to 10.7% last month.

Cullen said that would redress an effective 20% wage cut for nurses in real terms over the last decade.

The latest Nursing and Midwifery Council data for 2021-22 shows 37,815 Indian nurses on the council's register of those qualified to work in the UK, up from 28,192 the previous year. While India is second placed, the Philippines is the top-most source country for the UK with 41,090 nurses and Nigeria is third with 7,256 nurses. AFP

Can't afford: UK govt

Britain's Health Secretary Steve Barclay said the 19% wage hike demanded by the Royal College of Nursing is not affordable given the many other economic pressures that the UK is facing

ECB opts for smaller 0.5% interest rate hike

FRANKFURT

THE European Central Bank opted for a smaller interest rate rise of half a percentage point on Thursday but warned it expects "significantly" further hikes as red-hot inflation was still "far too high". The ECB has been lifting borrowing rates at an unprecedented pace in recent months to bring down record-high consumer prices after Russia's war in Ukraine sent energy and food costs surging.

But following two consecutive "jumbo" hikes of 75 basis points, the ECB's governing council downshifted to an increase of 50 basis points at their final meeting of 2022.

The move mirrors the half-point steps taken by the US Federal Reserve on Wednesday, and the Bank of England earlier on Thursday.

The ECB's latest, slightly less aggressive, increase comes after eurozone inflation eased in November for the first time in 17 months, partly thanks to efforts by European governments to ease the cost-of-living squeeze. At 10% however, inflation remains five times higher than the ECB's target and president Christine Lagarde is likely to reiterate at her 1345 GMT press conference that more rate hikes are needed to bring price pressures under control.

"Inflation remains far too high and is projected to stay above the target for too long," the governing council said in a statement ahead of the press conference. "Interest rates will still have to rise significantly at a steady pace," they said.

ING bank economist Carsten Brzeski said the ECB's comments were "surprisingly hawkish". The ECB's closely-watched bank deposit rate will now finish the year at 2.0%, the highest level since 2008. AFP

BANK OF ENGLAND LIFTS RATE TO 14-YEAR-HIGH

The Bank of England on Thursday hiked its interest rate by half a point to 3.5%, the highest level in 14 years, in a bid to cool sky-high inflation.The increase was the BoE's ninth in a row, while the amount matches a hike Wednesday by the Federal Reserve. The hike was less than in November when it increased borrowing costs by 0.75 percentage points. The BoE on Thursday added that it expects the UK economy to contract 0.1% in the fourth quarter, better than its previous forecast for a contraction of 0.3%

Nirav Modi loses bid to appeal against extradition in UK Supreme Court

LONDON

NIRAV Modi, the fugitive diamond merchant wanted in India to stand trial on money laundering charges, on Thursday suffered setback in his legal battle against his extradition as the High Court here denied him permission to appeal against the move in the UK Supreme Court.

In a judgment order pronounced at the Royal Courts of Justice in London, Lord Justice Jeremy Stuart-Smith and Justice Robert Jay ruled that "the Appellant's (Nirav Modi) application for permission to appeal to the Supreme Court is refused."

In a ruling delivered speedily within just over a week of the UK's Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) submitting its response to the 51-year-old diamantaire's permission to appeal application on behalf of the Indian government, the judges also ruled that the "certification of a point of law be refused" that would have allowed his plea to progress to the higher court.

Nirav Modi

An appeal on grounds of point of law of general public importance is a high threshold that is not met very often and this refusal significantly limits Modi's remaining legal options in the UK against extradition.

The latest order directs Modi to pay the legal costs related to the latest application, assessed in the sum of GBP 150,247.00.

As his attempt to have his appeal heard in the Supreme Court in London has now failed, Modi can apply to the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) to try and block his extradition on the basis that he will not receive a fair trial and that he will be detained in conditions that breach Article 3 of the European Convention on Human Rights, to which the UK is a signatory. PTI

CENTCOM VISIT

US general meets Pak's Army chief

ISLAMABAD

A top US general met Pakistan Army chief General Asim Munir on Thursday and discussed the security situation in the region as well as other related matters of mutual interest.

Commander Central Command (CENTCOM) General Michael Erik Kurilla met General Munir at General Headquarters in Rawalpindi, the army said in a statement.

"Matters of mutual interest, regional stability and security situation, defence and security cooperation particularly military-to-military ties were discussed during the meeting," the statement said.

The US military official "acknowledged Pakistan's achievements in fight against terrorism, flood relief and contributions for regional peace," it said.

The delegation was also scheduled to visit Torkham border point with Afghanistan where the Pakistan Army was to apprise him on counter-terrorism and border management mechanisms in place along Pakistan-Afghanistan Border.

It was the first high-level military visit by the US after the new army chief took charge.

A formerly warm relationship between the US and Pakistan frayed due to Pakistan's support for the Taliban in Afghanistan and the presence of large numbers of militants on its soil. Americans have been particularly upset with Pakistan since 2011, after al Qaeda founder Osama bin Laden was found and killed there. PTI

US to send Patriot missiles to Ukraine

Patriot missile systems have long been a hot ticket item for the US and allies in contested areas of the world as a coveted shield against incoming missiles. A look at the surface-to-air guided missile system

EACH PATRIOT BATTERY CONSISTS:

A truck-mounted launching system with eight launchers that can hold up to four missile interceptors each,

A control station and a generator

A ground radar, which is better at discriminating targets than the Soviet-era S-300 system the Ukrainians have been using

COULD CAUSE RUSSIA SOME SETBACKS

They will add a layer of protection on top of Ukraine's current systems, and also defend against short-range ballistic missiles that Russia could be seeking from Iran, Ian Williams of the Center for Strategic and International Studies said

"Having layered defences is helpful when you're dealing with this kind of complex air attack," he said

William screamed at meeting to discuss Megxit, says Harry

LONDON

PRINCE Harry and his wife, Meghan, vent their grievances against the British monarchy in the second half of their Netflix documentary series released on Thursday, which includes Harry describing how his older brother shouted at him during a meeting and Meghan talking about wanting to end her life as she struggled to cope with toxic press coverage.

He recounted how William lashed out at him during a royal summit at Sandringham Castle in January 2020 to talk about Harry and Meghan's plan to step down as senior royals and move away.

"It was terrifying to have my brother scream and shout at me and my father say things that just simply weren't true, and my grandmother quietly sit there and sort of take it all in," Harry said.

Prince Harry

The royal said he and Meghan's plan to stay "half in, half out" of royal life was swiftly rejected.

Elsewhere, Meghan says she thought about killing herself before she and Harry decided to move to America. "It was like, all of this will stop if I am not here," she said.

Prince William

Harry added that he believed the Mail on Sunday's publication of a letter Meghan wrote her estranged father, Thomas Markle, contributed to her having a miscarriage. Meghan later sued the Mail's publisher and won. "I believe my wife suffered a miscarriage because of what the Mail did," Harry said.

Harry stressed it was ultimately his decision, not Meghan's, to leave the UK. "I said that we need to get out of here," he said. AP

Market declines on US Fed rate hike

As central banks across globe are hiking rates, investors are worried about slackening growth

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

INDIAN equity markets snapped a two-day rally and ended with a major cut on Thursday amid weak global markets and selling across the sectors as the US Federal Reserve stated that benchmark rate hikes to tame inflation will continue in 2023 as well.

At close, the Sensex was down 878.88 points or 1.40% at 61,799.03, while the Nifty was down 245.40 points or 1.32% at 18,414.90.

The Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) raised its benchmark rate by 50 basis points to 4.25% to 4.5% target range. Policymakers projected rates would end next year at 5.1%, according to their median forecast. Currently, the benchmark interest rate in the US is at its highest level in 15 years. "The Fed has startled the market by maintaining its hawkish tone, as investors were expecting a softer approach after the release of better-than-expected inflation numbers," said Vinod Nair, Head of Research at Geojit Financial.

"IT stocks led to pessimism in the domestic market as recession fears grew in the global economies following the Fed's comments. The market now awaits the BOE and ECB decisions, which are likely to follow a half-point hike," he added.

Later in the day, the Bank of England (BOE) raised the benchmark rate by half a percentage point to 3.5%, its highest level in 14 years.

An increase in benchmark interest rate by the Federal Reserve and other major central banks tightens liquidity in the market and is a big negative for emerging markets such as India where foreign investor participation is very prominent. Experts believe that the speed with which central banks across the globe are hiking interest rates, investors are worried that slackening growth would push key economies into recession.

'G20 under India's presidency can make progress on crypto regulation'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

G20 under India's presidency can make progress in three areas -- debt management, crypto regulation and climate finance -- Gita Gopinath, Deputy Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund, said on Thursday. She is currently in India to attend G20 meetings.

"We have a large number of low income countries that are in debt distress. While we have a G20 common framework for debt resolution, we absolutely need to improve the strength of the mechanism and to get much more timely resolution. That would be a clear progress," she said. The second area in which G20 can improve is crypto resolution. Gopinath said that globally agreed norms are required for crypto regulations.

"After the crypto meltdown which we have seen recently, it is clear that we need internationally agreed standards on regulation. Progress on that front being able to accomplish that by 2023 would be a concrete outcome," she added.

"Lastly, is climate finance. For the developing countries to adapt to climate change and contribute to climate mitigation, they would need much higher financing, so that's the third area where progress can be made," Gopinath further stated. Ajay Seth, secretary, department of economic affairs, ministry of finance had on Wednesday said that one of the key agendas for G20 will be to make global the usage of central bank digital currencies (CBDC).

'Globally agreed norms needed for crypto law'

Gopinath said globally agreed norms are required for crypto regulations. "After the crypto meltdown which we have seen recently, it is clear that we need globally agreed standards on regulation. Progress on that front being able to accomplish that by 2023 would be a concrete outcome," she added

Reliance launches FMCG brand 'Independence'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

MUKESH AMBANI-led Reliance Group on Thursday launched its fast-moving consumer goods (FMCG) brand "Independence" in Gujarat.

The new brand, launched by Reliance Consumer Products, a subsidiary of Reliance Retail Ventures Ltd (RRVL), will take on established players such as Hindustan Unilever, ITC, Patanjali and Adani Wilmar.

In August this year, Reliance Retail, one of India's largest retailers, had announced that it would soon enter the FMCG business.

The company said it will offer several indigenous products including processed foods, staples and daily essentials. While the products will initially be available in Gujarat, RRVL has plans to extend the brand and include retailers from outside Gujarat in the coming months.

"I am happy to announce the launch of our own FMCG brand INDEPENDENCE which brings a wide choice of high quality and affordable products including edible oils, pulses, grains, packaged foods and other daily need products," said Isha Ambani, Director, Reliance Retail Ventures.

The company also said it plans to develop Gujarat as a "go-to-market" state to create "excellence in execution" for its FMCG business, as it prepares for a national rollout for the brand. Reliance claims that INDEPENDENCE products are tailor made with a distinct understanding of Indian consumer needs and are sure to find a place in Indian households, as they are not just made in India but made for India. "The company is collaborating with trade partners including manufacturers and kirana stores to create high quality products and empower them with enhanced business opportunities. In the coming months, the company plans to step up the launch to cover FMCG retailers across Gujarat," the statement noted.

Earlier this year, Reliance had acquired home-grown soft drink brand Campa which most likely will be used to take on the duopoly of PepsiCo and Coke.

IDBI BANK DRAGS ZEE ENT TO INSOLVENCY COURT

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

IN a fresh trouble for Zee Entertainment Enterprise Ltd, IDBI Bank has filed an insolvency application with the Mumbai bench of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) for defaulting on a payment of ₹149.60 crore.

The company in an exchange filing on late Wednesday night said that the bank's 'purported claim arises under a Debt Service Reserve Agreement entered into by the bank and the Company for the financial facility availed by Siti Networks Limited.

Zee Entertainment has said that it 'vehemently' disputes IDBI Bank's claim in other proceedings filed by the bank against the company for recovery of its alleged dues.

Once the insolvency application has been filed, NCLT has to admit it before insolvency proceedings could begin against Zee Entertainment. However, if Zee could establish at NCLT that the said outstanding amount is in dispute then NCLT may not admit IDBI Bank's insolvency petition against the company.

Often creditors use insolvency petition against a company as a recovery tool. Threatened with the prospect of losing the company if NCLT admits the insolvency plea, promoters often hurry on to settle dues of creditors.

Zee Entertainment and its subsidiary Dish TV have been mired in many controversies including tussles with shareholders.

Foreign institutional investor Invesco Group, which owned 18% in the company, had tried ousting ZEEL MD and CEO and even tried blocking its deal with Sony Pictures India.

While Invesco could not succeed in either, Zee group company Dish TV was not so lucky. Yes Bank, the largest shareholder in Dish TV, forced the company's chairman Jawahar Lal Goel to step down.

India's crude basket, which was $43.34 per barrel in November 2020, costs ₹$87.55 per barrel in November 2022. "Prices of Petrol and Diesel have not been increased by public sector OMCs since April 6, 2022, despite record high international prices," Puri said in a written reply to Lok Sabha.

The minister further said as a result, against the combined profit before tax, of ₹28,360 crore in the first half of financial year 2021-22, the three OMCs IOCL, BPCL and HPCL have reported a combined loss of ₹27,276 crore in the first half of current financial year. Giving the details of price hike in transport fuel all over the world, the ministry said in the US, from October 2022 to October 2022 the petrol and diesel prices are up by 98.2% and 144.6%, respectively.

In Canada, the petrol price increased by 80.6% and diesel was up by 138.4%, in Spain it is 40.1% and 74.1% ,respectively, and in the UK petrol and diesel prices are up by 41% and 52%, respectively.

Chance or skill? GoM divided over online gaming

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

THE Group of Ministers (GoM) formed to decide taxation for casinos, race courses and online gaming has submitted its second report to Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, the panel's head Meghalaya Chief Minister Conrad Sangma tweeted on Thursday.

The GoM, in its previous meeting in November had agreed on a 28% GST on online gaming, casinos and horse racing. However, sources privy to the matter told this newspaper that the latest report has been submitted without any consensus on the way tax should be levied on these transactions. The matter is likely to be taken up at the GST Council meet on Saturday, they added. There is a lot of confusion whether GST should be levied on the full face value or gross gaming revenue. The GST Council is expected to take a call on this on Saturday.

There are differences of view on the GST rate as well. Currently, 18% GST is levied on online gaming. The tax is levied on gross revenue, which includes fees charged by gaming portals.

Goa, whose transport and industries minister Mauvin Godinho is also a part of the GoM, has been batting for 18% GST. As do industry players, as they believes online gaming is a 'game of skill' unlike casinos and horse racing, which are 'games of chance'.

The GoM was supposed to finalise the revised report by August 10, but submission was postponed due to lack of clarity on the taxation process.

According to experts, higher taxation or incorrect levy could lead to revenue loss for the government as users are likely to shift from legitimate online gaming platforms to offshore betting and gambling platforms. In its recent report on 'international best practices in GST for online gaming', law firm Lakhsmikumaran & Sridharan notes that most leading economies including the UK, Australia and Singapore follow the "tax on gross gaming revenue" model.

India to see massive increase in data centres in coming yrs: Princeton Digital

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

WITH digitalisation and rapid adoption of cloud, combined with data localisation norms and storage of data within India, the demand for data centres in the country to massively scale up in the coming years, according to Singapore-based Princeton Digital Group.

"Every organisation requires IT capacity and they need a place to put their servers - either in-house, cloud or data centres. Going ahead, we see the size of data centres to massively increase and we expect a lot of significance to be based on safety and sustainability," said Vipin Shirsat, General Manager,

Princeton Digital Group. He added that as MNCS are growing, there is a need to put more capacity near the users and save the network cost and fulfil certain regulatory norms.

Singapore-headquartered Princeton Digital Group(PDG) launched its data centre (MU1) last week in Navi Mumbai. With an investment of $150 million, the new data centre provides 24 MW of IT capacity and the company will invest another $150 million to provide additional 24 MW of capacity that will be operational by 2024.

Shirsat said the data centre has the capacity to scale up to 100 MW in future.

PDG, which has presence in five countries with a portfolio of 20 data centres and 600 MW capacity, has plans to further expand in Mumbai and other cities such as Chennai, Delhi, Pune and Hyderabad with similar size and capacity.

According to Crisil's recent report, data centre capacity in India will double to 1,800 MW by fiscal 2025. The report says Mumbai, which accounts for nearly half of the existing capacity, is expected to add 300 MW.

The data centre sector is emerging in India on the back of digital transformation and more data is being processed and consumed at present. The sector also faces many challenges and vulnerabilities.

Talking about it, Shirsat said that there are infrastructure and regulatory challenges.

"There is a limitation to the size of the centre that we can put up," he said, adding certain approvals take longer time.

He also added since the industry has suddenly started to grow, getting talent is also becoming difficult. "We have taken initiatives like training and grooming young engineering talent," he added.

The company in February this year closed an equity investment from Mubadala Investment Company as a lead investor for $350 million. Both existing shareholders in PDG, Warburg Pincus and Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan Board also invested in that round.

ONE overzealous intervention by central defender Jawad El Yamiq was all it took — there had been no need to cover Antoine Griezmann, the underrated star of the French team, all that much in that moment of play but as it was Morocco's number 18 who slipped and in that split second, Morocco's World Cup dream all but faded. Griezmann sprinted away and at the far post Theo Hernandez, after the ball had taken a detour, volleyed his side into the lead. The strike was clinical, a mirror of Les Bleus 2.0, who spearheaded by Kylian Mbappe, do not enchant or enthrall but again practice a form of pragmatism that pleases Didier Deschamps and leads to victory.

And so, five minutes into the semifinal, Morocco were on the backfoot, confronted with a novel situation in these finals: they were trailing for the first time. This was the true test of the Atlas Lions and for a moment the face of Yassine Bounou, the standout number one, was full of bewilderment and disbelief. The unflappable goalkeeper, with boyish expression, flair and miraculous saves, had conceded a proper goal for the first time during the finals.

Did the realm of possibility close for Morocco? They had been more than simply an underdog in this tournament, but demonstrated that with talent, strategy and resilience everything was possible. Giant slayers, they were the first African team to feature in the last four of the World Cup, empowering not just the African continent but the Arab world as well as other parts of the football fraternity.

Morocco proffered a glimpse of so many hopes and dreams, outside the game as well. They also prompted existential questions: who did they represent? What did it mean to be Moroccan? From the berber community to the diaspora around the world, their semifinal presence thrust a new spotlight on conundrums of cultural identity.

Bounou was born in Montreal, Canada. Born in Casablanca, Azzedine Ounahi let fly a brilliant curling attempt. Born in Khouribga, El Yamiq came closest to equalising. On the brink of half-time, his spectacular overhead kick kissed the woodwork after the slightest of touches from Hugo Lloris. It was almost a reward for their fine response to Hernandez's strike.

Express POST
SAMINDRA KUNTI @ DOHA

Walid Regragui's team had poise and composure. When asked the question they replied with verve. They were having most of the ball, even if the North Africans were vulnerable to the French counter-attack, ceding opportunities to both Mbappe and Olivier Giroud. Midway, the first half, Selim Amallah had replaced Romain Saiss, a hardened captain exhausted from the historic triumph against Portugal, with Morocco switching to a more conventional 4-3-3 formation.

Yet, perhaps, Morocco were up against an intangible force. At the best of times tournament football is unforgiving. The first semifinal had turned on a single second, Luka Modric's unfortunate moment of inaccuracy, but at Al Bayt Stadium, as the French were stretched thin, almost paddling for the end at times, as the Moroccans kept getting ever closer to an equaliser, France wielded their experience, rode their luck and leveraged the weight of history — playing the World Cup final remains the privilege of a very select group of countries.

Often, Deschamps stood with his hands on his hips, perhaps wondering what was going on, perhaps quietly confident that his side would prevail. The French dropped deeper and deeper, protecting their penalty box, inviting Moroccan pressure.

And, then, suddenly, after all Morcco's barnstorming play with Achraf Hakimi and Hakim Ziyech torturing the French backline, it was over. In the 79th minute, Mbappe slalomed his way past Moroccan defenders in the box and Randal Kolo Muani provided the winner after the number ten's deflected attempt. This was another masterclass in French efficiency.

Throughout the 90 minutes, Morocco had looked vulnerable to the counter. The game was beyond Morocco and the final was out of reach. France had done enough, as they had throughout the competition, demonstrating their sangfroid.

Morocco's resoluteness and togetherness remained until the end when even Regragui's men, the second side in this tournament that always defied defeat, had to admit the game was up. As trailblazers for Africa they made history. The French, too, are one step from history. Les Bleus can become the first team to retain the World Cup since Brazil in 1962. They will have to overcome the high-flying Argentinians and the superlative Lionel Messi to do so.

QUICK PASSES

'France keeping feet on ground'

AL KHOR: Antoine Griezmann said France were staying grounded after the defending champions beat Morocco. "Four years ago after (the 1-0 semifinal win over) Belgium, I was crying, but now I'm already more focussed on Sunday," he said. "Instead of celebrating getting to the final, we're keeping our feet on the ground. We're focussed on recovering and preparing for the game."

Polish referee set for final

BRUSSELS: Polish referee Szymon Marciniak will take charge of Sunday's World Cup final between France and Argentina, FIFA announced. The 41-year-old has already officiated matches involving both teams — Argentina's last-16 win over Australia and France's group stage win against Denmark. Marciniak's assistants in Sunday's match will be compatriots Pawel Sokolnicki and Tomasz Listkiewicz.

NUGGETS & TRIVIA

Juan Jose Tramutola was the youngest coach for a World Cup team. He was 27 years old and 267 days when his team — Argentina — played against France in 1930.

> I was all alone. I saw Kylian (Mbappe) wanted to shoot, there was a rebound and I pounced on it to score. I'm proud to have won the game and it's a very proud moment to have scored the goal. It's amazing to play two World Cup finals in a row, we've done a great job.

> I am immensely proud. It is great to be through to the final but it was not an easy victory. We needed a mixture of quality, experience and team spirit, and in difficult periods we had to dig deep but I am really satisfied and proud of my players.

> We gave our all, that's the most important thing. The boys fought until the last minute. We wanted to win the game, but we came up against a strong team that knows what it is doing and waits for you to make a mistake — which we made at the beginning of the game.

Formidable Les Bleus in familiar territory

ANDY SCOTT @ Doha

THE inspirational leadership of Didier Deschamps and a deep pool of talent have turned France into the most formidable force in international football as they prepare to face Argentina in Sunday's World Cup final. France arrived in Qatar aiming to defy the fate of many recent holders, even as a flood of injuries threatened to derail their title defence.

The reigning champions had been knocked out in the group stage in four of the past five tournaments, including France themselves in 2002. But Deschamps' side have, in his own words, "reversed the trend" and after beating Morocco 2-0 in the last four on Wednesday, they have the chance to make history in the final at Lusail Stadium.

No team have retained the trophy since Brazil in 1962, while no reigning champions had even made the final since the Brazilians in 1998. That team lost in Paris to a France side captained by Deschamps, who has been there for almost all of his country's finest moments at major tournaments over a generation.

After leading them to glory four years ago, he can become the first coach to win two World Cups since Italy's Vittorio Pozzo in the 1930s. "Deschamps has been to three finals now, and he wins them," French President Emmanuel Macron said after making a flying visit to Qatar for the semifinal. "Things always come in threes. Didier Deschamps brings luck as well as talent, so we are going to win it and bring the trophy home."

Sustained success

Win or lose against Lionel Messi's Argentina, France are going through a remarkable period of sustained success in international football that began with that World Cup triumph in 1998 and continued with their Euro 2000 win. Deschamps was not involved as Les Bleus, with Zinedine Zidane as captain, reached the World Cup final again in 2006 and lost to Italy.

Now, as they look to make history in Doha, it is easy to forget France's disastrous 2010 campaign and that they were not seen as contenders for major honours when Deschamps took over in 2012. But he has now led them to three finals in four major tournaments, with Euro 2016 ending in an agonising extra-time loss to Portugal.

France also won the Nations League last year, and their last-16 exit at Euro 2020 looks like an anomaly. They have now reached four World Cup finals in seven editions, putting themselves in the same bracket as multiple winners Germany, Italy and Brazil. Deschamps' management has been key, even though he played down his personal role. "I'm not the most important," he said. "It is about the French national team." AFP

France rejoice, fans cheer brave Atlas Lions

SYLVIES CORBET @ Paris

CROWDS in Paris and other French cities erupted in shouts of joy as France advanced to the final while disappointed Morocco fans mingled with the exuberant supporters of the winning team, paying tribute to the African country's unprecedented feat. Football fans streamed to the Champs-Elysees avenue in Paris, shooting off firecrackers and red flares, to an unending chorus of honking cars.

On the famous avenue, many were brandishing French flags and singing "we are in the final." Some Moroccan fans, wrapped in the North African country's flag, also cheered their team in the streets of the French capital.

Supporters from both teams gathered in bars from the boulevards of Paris to the streets of Morocco's capital Rabat, from the cosmopolitan French Riviera city of Nice to the historic Moroccan city of Marrakech.

Celebrating the victory near the Bastille square, in central Paris, Adrien Vignau, a 22-year-old Parisian, praised a "great victory for France" and said he was looking forward to the final against Argentina.

"Bravo to Moroccans," said Parisian Corentin Voiseux. "Tonight it's not only France that wins but all of the French-speaking people. ... We are together and Moroccans will be with us at the final," he added.

In central Madrid, fans celebrated on Sol Square after the match, some with red Moroccan flags draped on their shoulders, jumping up and down, and some wearing the French tricolor.

In Belgium, scuffles briefly broke out in Brussels after the game and authorities countered with water cannon and teargas after they were targeted. One and a half hours later, a tense calm had returned. Media reports spoke of 40 detentions. There also was some unrest in northern Antwerp. AP

Morocco look to the future after loss

JAMES ROBSON @ Doha

MOROCCO made history, but couldn't make it past France. The first African country to reach the semifinals of the World Cup was eventually beaten by defending champions.

There is still the chance to win the third place match against Croatia on Saturday, but the dream of becoming the first team from outside of Europe or South America to go all the way to a final is over.

Morocco coach Walid Regragui and his players became the unlikeliest story of the World Cup and even in defeat, pushed France all the way. "My players gave everything. They've gone as far as they could," said Regragui. "They wanted to rewrite the history books, but you can't win a World Cup with miracles, you have to do it with hard work and that's what we are going to do, keep working."

Morocco's players kneel in prayer at the end of the match against France | AFP

Expectation vs Performance

No one could have expected Morocco to break new boundaries for African soccer by making it to the semifinals. They also became the first Arab nation to go so far at a World Cup.

And they did so on merit — topping a group that contained 2018 finalist Croatia and second-ranked Belgium, before progressing past favourites Spain and Portugal in the knockout stages. But perhaps Morocco's best performance came against France when they had to contend with injuries to key players and conceding a goal inside five minutes. In the face of those challenges they still managed to pressure France for long periods until Randal Kolo Muani's 79th minute strike sealed the win for Les Bleus.

Who is out?

Regragui has won plenty of admirers for his tactical acumen against some of the giants of international soccer. It will be interesting to see if any offers come his way from leading club teams in Europe — and whether he would be tempted to take up a new challenge.

He says he is committed to leading Morocco at the 2023 African Cup of Nations, which will come as a relief to the country's fans. Key defender and captain Romain Saiss is 32 and may have played in his last World Cup.

Who's next?

Midfielder Azz-Eddine Ounahi has been one of the brightest emerging talents at the tournament and could be the subject of interest from leading clubs in January or next summer. At 22 he is yet to reach his peak and currently plays his club soccer for Angers, the bottom club in France's first division.

Achraf Hakimi is already established at Paris Saint-Germain, but the 24-year-old right back has the potential to develop further and lead a golden generation for Morocco. AP

Deschamps' side struck by virus ahead of final

DOHA: A cold virus is running through the France squad ahead of the World Cup final against Argentina on Sunday, affecting at least three players in the squad. Coach Didier Deschamps said two players with symptoms, defender Dayot Upamecano and midfielder Adrien Rabiot, were isolated earlier this week and didn't play against Morocco.

Rabiot wasn't in the lineup in Wednesday's match at Al Bayt stadium. Upamecano was in the lineup as a substitute but didn't play. Deschamps said Upamecano was recovering from "three difficult days" since playing in the quarterfinals against England on Saturday.

"However, we have four days until the next game, so he should be available for Sunday," the coach said, adding back-up winger Kingsley Coman had also felt feverish.

He insisted he expects all his players to be healthy for the final against Argentina.

Becker deported to Germany from UK after prison release

Disgraced former tennis superstar Boris Becker was due back in Germany on Thursday after being deported following his release from a British prison, his lawyer said. The three-time Wimbledon champion had been sentenced to 30 months in prison in April for illicitly transferring large amounts of money and hiding assets after he was declared bankrupt.

Forgotten Kuldeep shines

Wrist spinner puts up an all-round show on Day 2 of first Test to keep India in command

GOMESH S @ Chennai

IMAGINE being Kuldeep Yadav. It's February 2021. You have just made a Test comeback after two years. You bowl 12.2 overs in a match dominated by spinners against England and take two wickets. Next match, you miss out as the team management wants to field a spinner who can bat better (Washington Sundar). You sit and watch as he makes a crucial contribution with the bat while bowling just 11.4 overs for one wicket across two matches.

You wait for your chance but injure your knee, missing the IPL and whatever chance you had of making the T20 World Cup. Early 2022, you make an ODI comeback, play one ODI and wait again as another Test series — Sri Lanka — passes by. Then, another IPL comes along. This time, you are not with the franchise you rose to the top. In a new team, you finish as the fifth highest wicket-taker of the season. Primed for comeback, you miss the T20I series due to a hand injury. From thereon, you feature in a second string Indian team, that was playing ODIs, and India A teams. You miss the T20 World Cup, don't get a chance in New Zealand. You wait.

It's not easy being Kuldeep.

Eventually, the call-up for the Test series against Bangladesh comes along. With Ravindra Jadeja ruled out, you get a go in the first Test. You join R Ashwin (50) in the middle when the team is in a tricky position (293/7) on Thursday morning, add a vital 92 runs together — 40 to your name — to put your team in command (404). Then you wait for 24 overs as the pacers make an impact, reducing the hosts to 74/4. You finally get the ball in your hand. Your first over in Tests in 22 months and you have a chance to make an impact. What would you want to do in your first over?

Here's what Kuldeep did. First ball, pitched in middle and leg from over the wicket, kicking up some dust off the surface, and flicked for a single by Mushfiqur Rahim. Second ball. Shakib Al Hasan on strike. Shakib jumped out, Kuldeep followed him. The ball dipped in front of Shakib, pitched on leg-stump, turned away, taking the leading edge on its way to Virat Kohli's hands in first slip. A big wicket, off the very second ball and the celebration was more of a relief than anything else. After all, he was just getting started. The next four balls had a boundary, an appeal for a close catch in first slip, a googly to beat the bat and then a regular leg-spinner which hit the pads — given not out and umpire's call on review.

After struggling with confidence and intermittent injuries for months, he was back where he belonged. Bowling with the red ball in a Test match for India. If there was any need for a morale boost, that first over was it. The nerves had settled down. From thereon, every over of his was an event. A sharp catch at short-leg from Shubman Gill accounted for Nurul Hasan before Kuldeep trapped Mushfiqur Rahim.

As stumps were drawn, Kuldeep finished with four wickets for 33 runs, helping India reduce the hosts to 133/8. "After a couple of overs I started feeling good, I was mixing my deliveries and was getting good turn as well," said Kuldeep.

When the teammates congratulated him while walking off the field, he could not stop smiling. It's the kind of day he had waited for a long time. It seemed like he wanted to soak it in, and deservedly so.

Shafali, Richa to join U19 camp after Oz series

ENS @ Chennai

SHAFALI Verma and Richa Ghosh will be staying with the senior team for till the final T20I against Australia on December 20, missing the first two days of the U19 camp in Bengaluru. Ahead of the T20I series against Australia, India captain Harmanpreet Kaur had confirmed that the duo who have been selected for the India U19 team that will travel to South Africa later this month will miss the fifth T20I to join the camp the team will be having in Bengaluru from December 18. "Till the time they join the camp, they will be available for the matches against Australia and once the camp starts, they will join in as that's very important because Shafali is going to lead," she had said.

Unlike the other players who have been selected for the U19 World Cup, Shafali and Richa have not played for India U19 and not been part of any camps or tournaments the group of players have took part in the last few months. With Shafali named captain, she would be getting to know her team in the camp from December 18. However, after the loss against Australia in the third T20I, the Indian skipper said that the duo will stay for the remainder of the series. "They will now play the whole series and then join the camp," she said.

As things stand, India are trailing 2-1 with two more T20Is to go on December 17 and 20.

Centurion Kishan leads Jharkhand's fightback

AGENCIES @ Ranchi

ISHAN Kishan smashed a century to script Jharkhand's fightback against Kerala in their Ranji Trophy Group C match here on Thursday. Less than a week after he blazed away to the fastest ODI double century against Bangladesh, Kishan slammed a 195-ball 132 as he led Jharkhand's recovery from being 114/4 to 340 all out.

Giving him support was Saurabh Tiwary who missed out on a century by just three runs after being cleaned up by Jalaj Saxena. The duo put on 202 runs for the fifth wicket to revive Jharkhand after Basil Thampi (3/55) and Vaisakh Chandran (2/81) rocked the top-order to have them reeling at 56/3. For Kerala, Saxena grabbed a splendid 5/75. At close, Kerala were 60/1 with an overall lead of 195 runs.

Meanwhile, in another Group C match, a day after scoring a century in his maiden first-class match to emulate his legendary father, left-arm seamer Arjun Tendulkar grabbed 2/77 on day three of Goa's match against Rajasthan. Arjun dismissed a well-set Mahipal Lomror (63) and Salman Khan (40) in his four overs. Mohit Redkar returned with 3/46 as Rajasthan ended the day at 245/6, trailing Goa by 302 runs. Goa earlier declared their first innings at 547 for 9.

In Hyderabad, Sai Sudarshan's magnificent maiden century (179) and a valuable century (115) by B Aparajith put Tamil Nadu in control against the hosts on the third of their match at the Rajiv Gandhi International Stadium, Hyderabad. Thanks to the effort of Sai Sudarshan and Aparajith on Thursday Tamil Nadu declared at 510/4 in 111.5 overs to secure a lead of 115 runs.

Select scores: Group A: At Cuttack: Odisha 457 in 154.2 ovs (Debabrata 89, Raut 70; Rathva 5/106) vs Baroda 416/5 in 115 ovs (Rawat 135, Moliya 113 n.o; Basant 2/31). Group B: At Pune: Delhi 191 & 233/5 in 72 ovs (Dhull 57, Rawal 55, Himmat 67n.o.) vs Maharashra 324; At Vizianagaram: Andhra 238 & 131 (Deshpande 3/34, Raut 2/26, Kotian 2/18) lost to Mumbai 331 (Jaffer 116, Kotian 63n.o.) & 40/1; At Hyderabad: Hyderabad 395 & 28 for no loss vs Tamil Nadu 510/4 decl in 111.5 overs (Sudharshan 179, Jagadeeshan 116, Aparajith 115 n.o). Group C: At Ranchi: Kerala 475 & 60/1 in 15 ovs vs Jharkhand 340 in 105.3 ovs (Kishan 132, Tiwary 97; Saxena 5/75); At Bengaluru: Karnataka 304 & 90 for no loss vs Services 261 in 83.2 ovs (Paliwal 124; Kaverappa 4/64); At Puducherry: Chhattisgarh 162 & 184 bt Puducherry 37 & 177 in 65.3 ovs (Karthik 55 n.o; Mandal 6/56); At Porvorim: Goa 547/9 decl vs Rajasthan 245/6 in 71 ovs (Kothari 96, Lomror 63; Redkar 3/46, Arjun 2/77). Group D: At Jammu: Madhya Pradesh 308 bt J&K 98 & 193 in 60.5 ovs (Lotra 66, Avesh 3/53).

However, despite scoring 177 in their second essay, hosts Puducherry lost to Chhattisgarh by 132 runs as they failed to recover from their dismal show in the first innings wherein they were bundled out for a paltry 37 runs.

Maharashtra hold edge

Pune: Maharashtra hold the edge over Delhi with their bowlers restricting the Yash Dhull-led side to 233/5 on the third day of a Ranji Trophy Group B match here on Thursday. With a lead of just 100 runs and five batters in the dugout, Delhi could find themselves in trouble if they lose the remaining wickets early on day four.

Maharashtra bowlers would look to utilise the early-morning freshness of the wicket on the last day to keep Delhi's lead to below 200 runs and then make a strong push for victory. In another match in the group in Vizianagaram, Mumbai defeated Andhra by nine wickets.
